Ravindra Chary,2022-02-10 This book highlights the approaches for achieving trans disciplinary research integration for semi arid dryland agriculture systems under changing climates while also identifying the elements of a collaborative research agenda that are needed to advance global food security The book emphasizes climate change being a reality and how drylands are bearing the brunt in diverse ways The major impact of dryland agriculture is on communities that need to avoid the short and long term impacts of the changing climate adapt strategies that can minimize these impacts and be able to mitigate climate change for which they need climate smart interventions These interventions are only realized through knowledge and experience sharing among stakeholders from different sectors and backgrounds It is in this context that the publication was seen as a necessity in order to bring together ideas that will transform lives and build adaptation capacities thereby providing the much needed products in communities leading to development Beyond the Crises: Zimbabwes Prospects for Transformation Tendai Murisa,Tendai Chikweche,2015-12-01 Over the past years few African countries have been the focus of discussions and analyses generating a vast array of literature as much as Zimbabwe The socioeconomic and political crises since the turn of the century have deeply transformed the country from the ideals of a vibrant freshly independent nation just two decades earlier These transformations have necessitated the call for the restructuring of Zimbabwean society polity and economy But this literature remains exclusively within the realm of academic thinking and theorising with no concerted effort to move beyond this by explicitly drawing out the policy implications Beyond the Crises Zimbabwes Prospects for Transformation is a welcome addition to the academic and policy literature with a much broader and all embracing focus in terms of policy interventions. By focusing on different aspects of social and economic justice Murisa and Chikweche go beyond initiating a broad discussion on these two key pillars of human development with a view to suggesting possible future directions of practical solutions and policy development for the attainment of inclusive social and economic justice for Zimbabweans. Scaling up SDGs Implementation Godwell Nhamo, Gbadebo O. A. Odularu, Vuyo Mjimba, 2020-01-14. This volume challenges global leaders and citizenry to do more in order to resource the implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development AfSD and its 17 interwoven Sustainable Development Goals SDGs. Starting from the concept we cannot manage what we cannot measure the book presents some cases showing how to draw national level baselines for the domestication and localisation of the SDGs seeking to provide a clear roadmap towards achieving the 2030 AfSD. Scaling up SDGs Implementation is targeted at the United Nations national and state governments sub national governments the corporate sector and civil society including higher education institutes labour groups non governmental organisations and youth movements. The book is cognizant of these institutions common but differentiated responsibilities and capabilities within their socio political environmental and economic conditions. The book presents case studies of how the corporate sector has been scaling up SDGs implementation from the tourism sector insurance to the aviation and agricultural sectors. To make sure that no one is left behind the volume includes cases on solutions for pressing environmental and socio economic problems ranging from cooperatives in Brazil to the conservation of springs in Zimbabwe. The matter of finding synergies between the climate SDG and the Paris Agreement's Nationally Determined Contributions NDCs is elaborated at length. Lastly the book discusses how institutions of higher education remain critical pillars in SDGs scaling up with cases of curriculum re orientation in South Africa to the rolling out of the Women's University in Africa. In this context this volume challenges every global citizen and organization to invest every effort into making the implementation of the SDGs a success as we welcome the second four to five year segment down the road to the year 2030.

Handbook of Research on Nascent Entrepreneurship and Creating New Ventures

Carrizo Moreira, António, Dantas, José Guilherme Leitão, 2020-10-09. Due to the 2008-2009 crisis the United Nations 2030 agenda for sustainable development and the COVID-19 pandemic the role of entrepreneurship has become more critical in most economies. Moreover emerging protectionist policies are further encouraging the emergence of new entrepreneurial projects particularly to replace goods and services traditionally provided by other countries. Understanding current challenges and best practices in nascent entrepreneurship is integral for the successful launching of new ventures to support the revitalization of economies and achieve sustainability. The Handbook of Research on Nascent Entrepreneurship and Creating New Ventures is a crucial reference source that covers the latest empirical research findings in the field of entrepreneurship and addresses the obstacles entrepreneurs face in these recent challenging times. The book embraces a pluralistic perspective from academicians currently navigating nascent entrepreneurship and key concepts for launching successful new ventures Covering topics that include government support programs spin off companies leadership strategic entrepreneurship and crowdfunding this book is targeted towards entrepreneurs professionals academicians researchers and students
