The College on the Hill Alexander M. Ross, Terry Crowley, Terence Allan Crowley, 1999-09 How has the Ontario Agricultural College contributed to Canadian education What role has the college played in the development of agriculture since it was founded in 1874 This history of Canada's oldest agricultural college revolves around these two questions It shows that the college's mandate has changed in its attempt to serve both education and agriculture The Ontario Agricultural College was established to enshrine science in farming but it also became the testing and extension arm of the provincial ministry of agriculture Direct government control for ninety years provided financial resources not enjoyed by other post secondary schools but the results sometimes proved of greater benefit to agriculture than to education or science Swept into the University of Guelph when it was created in 1964 the college rethought its role It emerged as a centre for advanced scientific inquiry for global agricultural programs and for understanding rural societies The controversies surrounding these changes and the evolving nature of agriculture and science are brought out fully in this account of the past century and a quarter American Television Nick Browne, 2013-07-18 This work brings together writings on television published in Quarterly Review of Film and Video from essays by Nick Browne and Beverle Houston to the latest historical and critical

Cumulated Index Medicus ,1972 Rethinking Gramsci Marcus Green,2011-03-30 This edited volume provides a coherent and comprehensive assessment of Antonio Gramsci s significant contribution to the fields of political and cultural theory It contains seminal contributions from a broad range of important political and cultural theorists from around the world and explains the origins development and context for Gramsci s thought as well as analysing his continued relevance and influence to contemporary debates It demonstrates the multidisciplinary nature of Gramscian thought to produce new insights into the intersection of economic political cultural and social processes and to create a vital resource for readers across the disciplines of political theory cultural studies political economy philosophy and subaltern studies The United Methodist Periodical Index ,1961 Commerce Business Daily ,2000-04 Rooted Cosmopolitanism, Heritage and the Question of Belonging Lennart Wouter Kruijer,Miguel John Versluys,Ian Lilley,2024-03-21 This book explores the analytical and practical value of the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism for the field of cultural heritage Many concepts of present day heritage discourses such as World Heritage local heritage practices or indigenous heritage tend to elide the complex interplay between the local and the global entanglements that are investigated as glocalisation in Globalisation Studies However no human group ever creates more than a part of its heritage by itself This book explores an exciting new alternative in scholarly critical heritage discourse the notion of rooted cosmopolitanism a way of making manifestations of globalised phenomena comprehensible and relevant at local levels It develops a critical perspective on heritage and heritage practices bringing together a highly varied yet conceptually focused set of stimulating contributions by senior and emerging scholars working on the heritage of localities across the globe A contextualising introduction is followed by three strongly theoretical and methodological chapters which complement the second part of the book six concrete empirical chapters written in response to the more theoretical chapters Two final reflective conclusions bring together these different levels of analysis This book will appeal primarily to archaeologists anthropologists heritage professionals and museum curators who are ready to be confronted with innovative and exciting new approaches to the complexities of cultural heritage in a globalising world The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
