Lebowitz,2015-07-22 In a little more than a decade economist Michael A Lebowitz has written several major works about the transition from socialism to capitalism Beyond Capital winner of the Deutscher Prize Build It Now The Socialist Alternative and The Contradictions of Real Socialism Here he develops and deepens the analysis contained in those pathbreaking works by tracing major issues in socialist thought from the nineteenth century through the twenty first Lebowitz explores the obvious but almost universally ignored fact that as human beings work together to produce society's goods and services we also produce something else namely ourselves Human beings are shaped by circumstances and any vision of socialism that ignores this fact is bound to fail or at best reproduce the alienation of labor that is endemic to capitalism But how can people transform their circumstances in a way that allows them to re organize production and at the same time fulfill their human potential Lebowitz sets out to answer this question first by examining Marx's Critique of the Gotha Programme and from there investigates the experiences of the Soviet Union and more recent efforts to build socialism in Venezuela He argues that socialism in the twenty first century must be animated by a central vision in three parts social ownership of the means of production social production organized by workers and the satisfaction of communal needs and communal purposes These essays repay careful reading and reflection and prove Lebowitz to be one of the foremost Marxist thinkers of this era

New Ideas in Quantitative Psychology and Measurement Ioannis Tsaousis,Nikolaos

Tsigilis,Georgios Sideridis,Iasonas Lamprianou,2024-09-12 Validity of scores is the ultimate goal of measurement The concept of measurement validity is severely challenged for methodological and statistical decisions during the assessment and analysis process Thus the present Research Topic is proposed as a means to provide new knowledge and ideas related to measurement It is designed to address issues of measurement reliability and validity new advances in the measurement of these concepts and the methodologies involved to attain them The use of new software and routines will target at making accessible these concepts so that the papers will be easily accessible by a broad audience of researchers in the social sciences The goal of the present proposal is to provide new knowledge in psychometrics Topics of interest are the following but are not limited to those Any work related to improving measurement is potentially of interest to this issue Examples include confirmatory factor analysis item response theory measurement invariance Bayesian applications of measurement reliability in longitudinal designs invariance in longitudinal and cross sectional designs parametric and non parametric extension of item response models analysis of response times analyses of aberrant behavior systematic measurement error the roles of personal characteristics in measurement scaling systems and evaluation item position effects analysis of distractors detection of cheating and guessing nested model applications of the above concepts latent class and latent profile models cognitive diagnostic models classification models computerized adaptive testing multistage testing cross validation simulations of all the above power analyses extension of descriptive fit indices analysis of response vectors etc Applications of the above concepts and use of specific software routines is especially encouraged

Predatory Value Extraction William Lazonick,Jang-Sup Shin,2020 This book explains how an ideology of corporate resource allocation known as maximizing
