Cinema Emma Pett, 2021-01-28 Film is often conceived as a medium that is watched rather than experienced Existing studies of film audiences and of media reception more broadly have revealed the complexity of viewing practices and cultures surrounding cinema going and its exhibition spaces Experiencing Cinema offers the first in depth study of participant engagement with a range of experiential media forms derived from cinema culture From sing a long screenings to theatrical extravaganzas a broad spectrum of alternative film going practices and immersive spaces are explored and analysed in this original audience study Moving from intimate community gatherings to blockbuster urban venues from isolated farmhouses to Olympic stadia Experiencing Cinema considers the lure and value of these popular events Often attracting a diverse intergenerational range of participants from early adopter urban hipsters to DIY rural communities the growing demand for participatory cinema within the contemporary marketplace is analysed alongside broader debates circulating around the move away from traditional tiered seating and increased audience mobility and the de centring of the film text

Revisiting the Fundamentals of the Free Movement of Persons in EU Law Niamh Nic Shuibhne, 2023-08-06 How free is the free movement of persons Why does the law that enables it need to be revisited This collection of essays curated by Claire Kilpatrick and Joanne Scott for the European University Institute s 2020 Academy of European Law addresses these questions Across different examples migration posted workers social security Brexit and Union citizenship each chapter revisits the categories that have become entrenched in EU law on the free movement of persons and the boundaries that have been constructed as a result Do they still represent meaningful differences Are they valuable compass points or inhibitors of progress Do they ensure comprehensive or fragmented protection of the person In reconsidering the fundamentals of EU free movement law the book draws attention to tensions that have not yet been properly resolved between appropriate difference and problematic discrimination or between the mythology and the experienced reality of free movement for the people who actually move Its chapters consider how the free movement of persons connects to and is shaped by the EU legal spaces beyond free movement as well as by the space beyond law The contributors do not shy away from provoking a rethink of core principles They interrogate these fundamentals and the changing objectives of the free movement of persons to take up the challenge of doing it better of making it both more protective of people and more resilient in ethical systemic and sociological terms
