Future Crimes Marc Goodman, 2015-02-24 THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Future proof yourself and your business by reading this book Technological advances have benefited our world in immeasurable ways but there is an ominous flipside Criminals are often the earliest and most innovative adopters of technology and modern times have led to modern crimes Today's criminals are stealing identities draining online bank accounts and wiping out computer servers It's disturbingly easy to activate baby cam monitors to spy on families pacemakers can be hacked to deliver a lethal jolt and thieves are analyzing your social media in order to determine the best time for a home invasion Meanwhile 3D printers produce AK 47s terrorists can download the recipe for the Ebola virus and drug cartels are building drones This is just the beginning of the tsunami of technological threats coming our way In Future Crimes Marc Goodman rips open his database of hundreds of real cases to give us front row access to these impending perils Reading like a sci fi thriller but based in startling fact Goodman raises tough questions about the expanding role of technology in our lives Future Crimes is a call to action for better security measures worldwide but most importantly will empower readers to protect themselves against these looming technological threats before it's too late

The Liminal and The Luminescent Terrill L. Gibson, 2021-12-21 Our world is bathed in ongoing biological political cultural climate and spiritual crises that seem endless If anything these disruptions appear to be spiraling into ever larger threat fronts that challenge our survival as a species Carl Gustav Jung renowned Swiss psychiatrist avowed in his archetypal psychology that there is a portal of transforming possibility if we have the courage to enter that doorway That threshold entering demands that we embrace our individual and collective sufferings and then seek the path of meaning and destiny that is always resident deeply at the core of such trauma This book narrates how this destiny is found and lived forward for both each individual life and for our varied human cultures It affirms and gives examples of the deep soul dimension of life that lies under the often chaotic surface the liminal realm of animate and guiding dream vision myth and spirituality where the gods meet us so that we all can find our mutual way Home This liminal world is navigated through the metaphoric and literalness of pilgrimage performance and political processes in our personal and cultural lives

What might be your path of destiny      Paper Minds Jonathan Kramnick, 2018-09-07 How do poems and novels create a sense of mind What does literary criticism say in conversation with other disciplines that addresses problems of consciousness In Paper Minds Jonathan Kramnick takes up these vital questions exploring the relations between mind and environment the literary forms that uncover such associations and the various fields of study that work to illuminate them Opening with a discussion of how literary scholarship's particular methods can both complement and remain in tension with corresponding methods particular to the sciences Paper Minds then turns to a series of sharply defined case studies Ranging from eighteenth century poetry and haptic theories of vision to fiction and contemporary problems of consciousness to landscapes in which all matter is sentient to cognitive science and the rise of the novel Kramnick's essays are united by a central thematic authority This unified approach of these essays shows us what distinctive knowledge that literary texts and literary criticism can contribute to discussions of perceptual consciousness created and natural environments and skilled engagements with the world      Humans, Animals and Biopolitics Kristin Asdal, Tone Druglitrø, Steve Hinchliffe, 2016-07-01 Human animal co existence is central to a politics of life how we order societies and to debates about who we humans think we are In other words our ways of understanding and ordering human animal relations have economic and political implications and affect peoples everyday lives By bringing together historically oriented approaches and contemporary ethnographies which engage with science and technology studies STS this book reflects the multi sited multi species multi logic and multiple ways in which lives are and have been assembled disassembled practised and possibly policed and politicized Instead of asking only how control and knowledge are and have been extended over life the chapters in this book also look at what happens when control fails at practices which defy orders escape detection fail to produce or only loosely hang together In doing so the book problematises and extends the Foucauldian notion of biopolitics that has been such a central analytical concept in studies of human animal relations and provides a unique resource of cases and theoretical refinements regarding the ways in which we live together with more than human others      Handbook of Behavioral and Cognitive Geography Daniel R. Montello, 2018-04-27 This comprehensive Handbook summarizes existing work and presents new concepts and empirical results from leading scholars in the multidisciplinary field of behavioral and cognitive geography the study of the human mind and activity in and concerning space place and environment It provides the broadest and most inclusive coverage of the field so far including work relevant to human geography cartography and geographic information science      A Connected Curriculum for Higher Education Dilly Fung, 2017-06-07 Is it possible to bring university research and student education into a more connected more symbiotic relationship If so can we develop programmes of study that enable faculty students and real world communities to connect in new ways In this accessible book Dilly Fung argues that it is not only possible but also potentially transformational to develop new forms of research based education Presenting the Connected Curriculum framework already adopted by UCL she opens windows onto new initiatives related to for example research based education internationalisation the global classroom interdisciplinarity and public engagement A Connected Curriculum for Higher Education is however not just about developing engaging programmes of study Drawing on the field of philosophical hermeneutics Fung argues how the Connected Curriculum framework can help to create spaces for critical dialogue about educational values both within and across existing research groups teaching departments and learning communities Drawing on vignettes of practice from around the world she argues that developing the synergies between research and education can empower faculty members and students from all backgrounds to contribute to the global common good

The (Un)Certain Future of Empathy in Posthumanism, Cyberculture and Science Fiction Elsa Bouet, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This volume investigates the future of empathy as contemplated by posthumanism cyberculture and science fiction As humanity increasingly networks and communicates online the reconfiguration of human communities through the removal and immediacy of the body challenges traditional notions of humanity and human capacity for empathy The impact of cyberculture and posthumanism on humanity and its capacity for empathy is here assessed through research in literature films neuroscience anthropology and philosophy This volume addresses the centrality of the body to human interactions and assesses how intrinsic it is to the defining of the human The exploration of posthuman narratives which display futuristic bodily modifications also engages with the anxieties and hopes for the future of human empathy Research in dystopian narratives shows that these anxieties are also expressed without the tropes of bodily modifications and that ideological distancing creates the conditions necessary for a lack of empathy towards otherness

Eco-Phenomenology: Life, Human Life, Post-Human Life in the Harmony of the Cosmos William S. Smith, Jadwiga S. Smith, Daniela Verducci, 2018-07-03 This volume presents discussions on a wide range of topics focused on eco phenomenology and the interdisciplinary investigation of contemporary environmental thought Starting out with a Tymieniecka Memorial chapter the book continues with papers on the foundations theories readings and philosophical sources of eco phenomenology In addition it examines issues of phenomenological anthropology ecological perspectives of the human relationship to nature and phenomenology of the living body and the virtual body Furthermore the volume engages in a dialogue with contemporary behavioral sciences on topics such as eco alienation sustainability and the human relationship to the earth in the context of the cosmos
