

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Translanguaging and English as a Lingua Franca in the Plurilingual Classroom Anna Mendoza, 2023-03-09 This book explores multilingual practices such as translanguaging code switching and stylization in secondary classrooms in Hawai i Using linguistic ethnography it investigates how students in a linguistically diverse class including those who speak less commonly taught languages deal with learning tasks and the social life of the class when using these languages alongside English as a lingua franca It discusses implications for teachers from balancing student needs in lesson planning and instruction to classroom management where the language use of one individual or group can create challenges of understanding participation or deficit identity positionings for another The book argues that students must not only be allowed to flex their whole language repertoires to learn and communicate but also be aware of how to build bridges across differences in individual repertoires It offers suggestions for teachers to consider within their own contexts highlighting the need for teacher autonomy to cultivate the classroom community s critical language awareness and create conducive environments for learning This book will appeal to postgraduate students researchers and academics working in the fields of sociolinguistics and linguistic ethnography as well as pre service and in service teachers in linguistically diverse secondary school contexts

Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO, 2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not
