Essenes or of the siege of Masada and the material context of the first great rabbinic work the Mishnah Other essays connect early Christian texts with the social and cultural realia of their day modes of travel notions of gender patronage and benefaction the relation of tenants and owners or reflect on the aesthetics of Christian architecture and the relation between building and ritual in Constantinian churches One study relates the writing of the famous novelist Apuleius to a household mithraeum in Ostia while another explores the changing appropriation of religious realia as the Roman world became Christian These wide ranging and original studies demonstrate clearly that texts and artifacts can be mutually supportive Equally they point to ways in which artifacts no less than texts are inherently ambiguous and teach us to be cautious in our conclusions Invest Your Humanity Julye Bidmead,Gail J. Bhayro,2021-10-25 The study of the Syriac magical traditions has largely been marginalised within Syriac studies with the earliest treatments displaying a disparaging attitude towards both the culture and its magical practices Despite significant progress in more recent scholarship in respect of the culture its magical practices and their associated literatures remain on the margins of the scholarly imagination This volume aims to open a discussion on the history of the field to evaluate how things have progressed and to suggest a fruitful way forward In doing so this volume demonstrates the incredible riches contained within the Syriac magical traditions and the necessity of their study Christians Shaping Identity from the Roman Empire to Byzantium Geoffrey Dunn,Wendy Mayer,2015-07-14 The essays collected in Christians Shaping Identity celebrate Pauline Allen s significant contribution to early Christian late antique and Byzantine studies especially concerning bishops heresy orthodoxy and christology Covering the period from earliest Christianity to middle Byzantium the first eighteen essays explore the varied ways in which Christians constructed their own identity and that of the society around them A final four essays explore the same theme within Roman Catholicism and oriental Christianity in the late 19th to 21st centuries with particular attention to the subtle relationships between the shaping of the early Christian past and the moulding of Christian identity today Among the many leading scholars represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A Clark
