Anglican Manifesto A Christian Response To Oneworld Religion:

Anglican Manifesto Jack A. Estes, 2014-10-31 The Anglican Communion must address a central issue that of the postmodern worldview growing in its midst and the corresponding development of a One World Religion It is an issue of theological meaning and interpretation of right doctrine and right practice It is an issue of Christian identity The crisis has only just begun Anglicans are the canary in the coal mine gasping for air while worldwide Christianity looks on to see how much oxygen is left The One World Religion is actively coming into being Many Christian churches are grappling with forces and pressures from within and without to yield to change or to embrace this phenomenon which can be oh so appealing The time has come for all who would call themselves Christians to decide which set of beliefs and practices will be adhered to and taught in the church and which vision will be offered to the world as the Christian faith Anglican Manifesto seeks to ignite a reformation of Anglicanism in order to set the stage for a global reunification and revival of Christian churches worldwide

Public Opinion ,1892 The Mission and Ministry of the Church in England Michael Nazir-Ali, 2023-10-19 Monsignor Michael Nazir Ali draws on the rich history of Ecclesia Anglicana the complex reality that has been the English church from the beginning he discusses its glories achievements vicissitudes and failures as well as the expansion and adaptation of this Anglican heritage to different parts of the world and many cultures Nazir Ali starts with the different ways in which England was first evangelized and how in turn the Church of or in England Ecclesia Anglicana was able to send missionaries to continental Europe for primary evangelism and church planting He examines the more recent past with the evangelical and

Catholic revivals in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and their significance for mission both at home and abroad The formation of mission agencies gave a new impetus to mission challenging people to give to pray and to go He then considers what we can learn from mission today in different parts of the world providing specific examples of such missionary activity of the churches in Nigeria and Kenya as well as the churches in South East Asia The book examines how the gospel connects with culture what we need to learn from the global Church about mission and ministry the different models for mission and ministry ranging from the incarnational to the itinerant from inculturation to social and political activism and from embassy to hospitality Episcopal Overseas Mission Review ,1959 Interfaith Theology Dan Cohn-Sherbok,2001-11

Excerpts from the writings of more than 100 theologians and philosophers of religion provide a picture of the contemporary debate over the issue of religious pluralism The readings are from Christian Jewish Muslim Hindu and Buddhist thinkers
