Novello* George Frideric Handel,1853 Worship, Music, and Interpretation Wendy J. Porter,2024-09-30 This unique volume brings together wide ranging research that could only be written by someone singularly expert in the full range of Christian worship and music from ancient to modern These essays by Wendy Porter span eras and areas of study from the New Testament to the present and encompass an expansive view of worship music and liturgy Some focus on what is known or not about early Christian worship including the early creeds and hymns in the New Testament and whether music originated in Jewish or Greco Roman contexts Some introduce firsthand work on ancient liturgical manuscripts such as a sixth century manuscript by hymnwriter and preacher Romanos Melodus or a tenth century ekphonic liturgical manuscript Extending her research on sixteenth century English composers as musical interpreters Porter includes several papers on how musicians have functioned as theological interpreters in worship and music One chapter engages theological comparisons between well known compositions by Bach Beethoven and Stravinsky another creatively explores what contemporary worship leaders can learn from sixteenth century songwriter and worship leader William Byrd while others invite thoughtful reflection on what we can all learn if we stop to consider how Christians have functioned and fared in their worship through the centuries
