Math Education for America? Mark Wolfmeyer,2013-12-04 Math Education for America analyzes math education policy through the social network of individuals and private and public organizations that influence it in the United States The effort to standardize a national mathematics curriculum for public schools in the U S culminated in 2010 when over 40 states adopted the Common Core State Standards for Mathematics Rather than looking at the text of specific policy documents this book complements existing critical reviews of the national math education curriculum by employing a unique social network analysis Breaking new ground in detailing and theorizing the politics of math education Wolfmeyer argues that the private interests of this network are closely tied to a web of interrelated developments human capital education policy debates over traditional and reform pedagogy the assumed content knowledge deficit of math teachers and the proliferation of profit driven educational businesses By establishing the interconnectedness of these interests with the national math education curriculum he shows how the purported goals of math education reform are aligned with the prevailing political agendas of this social network rather than the national interest Inquire, Investigate, Integrate! Kaye Hagler,2014-06-01 Inquire investigate integrate and inspire In this book Kaye Hagler presents thematic units that touch on core content in science with a common thread of literacy throughout The integrated units not only engage students in content such as landforms forces and motion weather life cycles and food chains but they also include reading and writing activities that engage students and connect content to literacy Options for differentiation allow for all students to access important concepts across the content areas Correlations to the NEXT Generation Science Standards and Common Core State Standards are also included for each activity By design these books are not printable from a reading device To request a PDF of the reproducible pages please contact customer service at 1 888 262 6135
