Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1858 Educational Times ,1887 Man and the Social Sciences (Routledge Revivals) William Alexander Robson,2014-02-04 One of the most significant movements in the world of learning in the twentieth century was the rise and development of the social sciences However few attempts have been made to see how far social scientists have travelled on the road to studying and understanding human society First published in 1972 the lectures reprinted in this book aim to trace the development of the social sciences during the twentieth century and to show the role of the London School of Economics and Political Science in this development since it was founded in 1895 Each of the very distinguished lecturers was asked to take the larger view to be critical where necessary to treat his subject in the context of the world of learning The result is a survey of exceptional interest in which the growth of the social sciences is analysed from a number of contrasting viewpoints each of which ranges widely and often with provocative brilliance over themes that are of general concern The introduction by Professor W A Robson which was not part of the original lecture series is in itself a critical assessment of the field that will be read with close attention Surveying and Mapping ,1956 Artificial Intelligence in Education Rosemary Luckin,Kenneth R. Koedinger,Jim E. Greer,2007 The nature of technology has changed since Artificial Intelligence in Education AIED was conceptualized as a research community and Interactive Learning Environments were initially developed Leading Instructional Rounds in Education Thomas Fowler-Finn,2013-05-01 Instructional rounds is a powerful form of professional learning aimed at helping schools and systems develop the capacity to educate all children to high levels In this practical book Thomas Fowler Finn an experienced consultant who has worked closely with the Harvard team that pioneered instructional rounds discusses how facilitators can skillfully guide a network of educators through the rounds process He shows how to scaffold participant learning model effective teaching practices and gradually transfer agency to the network Leading Instructional Rounds is an invaluable resource for advancing the work of all facilitators whether novice or experienced
