Audit Culture Cris Shore, Susan Wright, 2024-02-20 A new and compelling argument for why so many institutions continue to be spellbound by rankings and metrics despite the cultural carnage they cause How can we halt this death by audit The authors develop a radical agenda that will strike fear into number loving technocrats around the world Peter Fleming author of Dark Academia How Universities Die A powerful and definitive critical diagnosis of the effects of audit culture on individuals organisations and society Essential reading Michael Power Professor LSE A visionary book Marilyn Strathern Emeritus Professor University of Cambridge All aspects of our work and private lives are increasingly measured and managed But how has this audit culture arisen and what kind of a world is it producing Cris Shore and Susan Wright provide a timely account of the rise of the new industries of accounting enumeration and ranking from an anthropological perspective Audit Culture is the first book to systematically document and analyse these phenomena and their implications for democracy The book explores how audit culture operates across a wide range of fields including health higher education NGOs finance the automobile industry and the military The authors build a powerful critique of contemporary public sector management in an age of neoliberal market making privatisation and outsourcing They conclude by offering ideas about how to reverse its damaging effects on communities and restore the democratic accountability that audit culture is systematically undermining Cris Shore is Emeritus Professor of Social Anthropology at Goldsmiths University of London and Research Fellow at the Institute for Advanced Study Central European University One of his recent publications is The Shapeshifting Crown Susan Wright is Professor of Educational Anthropology at Aarhus University Denmark One of her recent books is Enacting the University Together they are co editors of the Stanford Anthropology of Policy book series

Reconceptualizing STEM Education Richard A. Duschl, Amber S. Bismack, 2016-01-08 Reconceptualizing STEM Education explores and maps out research and development ideas and issues around five central practice themes Systems Thinking Model Based Reasoning Quantitative Reasoning Equity Epistemic and Ethical Outcomes and STEM Communication and Outreach These themes are aligned with the comprehensive agenda for the reform of science and engineering education set out by the 2015 PISA Framework the US Next Generation Science Standards and the US National Research Council's A Framework for K 12 Science Education The new practice focused agenda has implications for the redesign of preK 12 education for alignment of curriculum instruction assessment STEM teacher education and professional development postsecondary further and graduate studies and out of school informal education In each section experts set out powerful ideas followed by two eminent discussant responses that both respond to and provoke additional ideas from the lead papers In the associated website highly distinguished nationally recognized STEM education scholars and policymakers engage in deep conversations and considerations addressing core practices that guide STEM education The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,2012 The Ministry of Justice's Language Service Contract Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2012-12-14 Before January 2012 the Ministry generally booked interpretation services directly with individual interpreters many of whom were listed on the National Register of Public Service Interpreters NRPSI This approach was administratively inefficient and the Ministry decided to set up a new centralised procurement system The Ministry awarded the contract to a company ALS that was clearly incapable of delivering Despite having been warned that ALS was too small to shoulder a contract worth more than 1 million it went ahead and handed them an annual 42 million national contract The Ministry did not understand its own basic requirements and ignored the views of interpreters who had serious concerns about the contract Capita took over ALS in late 2011 The Ministry needed access to 1 200 interpreters when the contract went live but the company had only 280 properly assessed interpreters willing to work for it The Ministry though still decided to go live nationally in one go Many of the interpreters it thought were available had simply registered an interest on the company s website and had been subject to no official checks As a result the company was able to meet only 58% of bookings causing a sharp rise in delayed postponed and abandoned trials individuals being kept on remand solely because no interpreter was available and the quality of interpreters has at times been appalling However Capita has only been fined 2 200 to date for failing to meet the terms of the contract Capita ALS is now fulfilling more bookings but it is still struggling
