Landscape-scale Conservation Planning Stephen C. Trombulak,Robert Baldwin,2010-09-21 Hugh P Possingham Landscape scale conservation planning is coming of age In the last couple of decades conservation practitioners working at all levels of governance and all spatial scales have embraced the CARE principles of conservation planning Comprehensiveness Adequacy Representativeness and Efficiency Hundreds of papers have been written on this theme and several different kinds of software program have been developed and used around the world making conservation planning based on these principles global in its reach and influence Does this mean that all the science of conservation planning is over that the discovery phase has been replaced by an engineering phase as we move from defining the rules to implementing them in the landscape This book and the continuing growth in the literature suggest that the answer to this question is most definitely no All of applied conservation can be wrapped up into a single sentence what should be done the action in what place at what time using what mechanism and for what outcome the objective It all seems pretty simple what where when how and why However stating a problem does not mean it is easy to solve

Discovering Lost Automobiles and their Stories Michael Ware, 2023-01-31 Many enthusiasts dream of finding a Bugatti or a Bentley in a barn or a long disused building In reality such finds are more likely to be an Austin 7 Ford Popular or a Mini This book is stuffed with these so called barn finds The author has tried to find out the background to the abandonment and the previous history of the as found car when it was in regular use Why was it put away and apparently forgotten Many of the stories have appeared in his Lost and Found column in Classic and Sports Car magazine but a book gives a chance for the expanded story to be told The cars featured date from 1900 through till the 1980's most come from Great Britain and Europe but there are plenty from Australasia and USA There are well over 200 different cars plus collections featured Each story has at least one illustration to go with it Some of the locations are bizarre a Daimler buried under a rockery a Porsche sunk in Lake Lucerne a Rolls Royce on the roof of a high rise building in Karachi or a Morris 8 special in a Gloucestershire pond There is a chapter on collections of cars put together by seemingly eccentric owners who never got around to restoring them before their death The author is not critical of any of these owners and is grateful for the number of cars they have saved from almost certain destruction Ebersole and Hess'
