An Untamed State English Edition:

An Untamed State Roxane Gay, 2014-05-06 A Haitian American woman survives a brutal kidnapping in this commanding debut novel from the New York Times bestselling author of Bad Feminist The New Yorker Author and essayist Roxane Gay is celebrated for her incisive commentary on identity and culture as well as for her bestselling nonfiction and short story collections Now with An Untamed State she delivers a breathtaking debut novel The Guardian UK of wealth in the face of crushing poverty and the lawless anger produced by corrupt governments Mireille Duval Jameson is living a fairy tale The strong willed youngest daughter of one of Haiti's richest sons she lives in the United States with her adoring husband and infant son returning every summer to stay on her father's Port au Prince estate But the fairy tale ends when Mireille is kidnapped in broad daylight by a gang of heavily armed men just outside the estate walls Held captive by a man who calls himself The Commander Mireille waits for her father to pay her ransom As her father's standoff with the kidnappers stretches out into days Mireille must endure the torments of a man who despises everything she represents An Untamed State is a breathless artful disturbing and original story of a willful woman attempting to find her way back to the person she once was and of how redemption is found in the most unexpected of places Meg Wolitzer author of The Interestings Who Reads Poetry Fred Sasaki, Don Share, 2017-10-20 Who reads poetry and why This rewarding volume provides answers from Roxane Gay Roger Ebert Lili Taylor Alfred Molina Aleksandar Hemon and forty five more Who reads poetry We know that poets do but what about the rest of us When and why do we turn to verse Seeking the answer Poetry magazine since 2005 has published a column called The View From Here which has invited readers from outside the world of poetry to describe what has drawn them to poetry Over the years contributors have included philosophers journalists musicians and artists as well as doctors and soldiers an ironworker an anthropologist and an economist This collection brings together fifty compelling pieces in turns surprising provocative touching and funny Anthropologist Helen Fisher turns to poetry while researching the effects of love on the brain As other anthropologists have studied fossils arrowheads or pot shards to understand human thought I studied poetry I wasn't disappointed everywhere poets have described the emotional fallout produced by the brain's eruptions The rapper Rhymefest attests to the self actualizing power of poems Words can create worlds and I've discovered that poetry can not only be read but also lived out My life is a poem Musician Neko Case calls poetry a delicate pretty lady with a candy exoskeleton on the outside of her crepe paper dress And music critic Alex Ross tells us that he keeps a paperback of The Palm at the End of the Mind by Wallace Stevens on his desk next to other more utilitarian books like a German dictionary a King James Bible and a Mac troubleshooting manual Contributors also include Ai Weiwei Christopher Hitchens Kay Redfield Jamison Lynda Barry and more The diversity of the authors results in an exceptionally broad range of topics and perspectives Many of the contributors also tell intimate stories about poetry's place in their personal lives Sasaki and Share have chosen these pieces well Publishers Weekly Funny moving and inspiring The

Australian Austerity, Community Action, and the Future of Citizenship in Europe Shana Cohen, Christina Fuhr, Jan-Jonathan Bock, 2017-09-06 The politics of austerity has seen governments across Europe cut back on welfare provision As the State retreats this edited collection explores secular and faith based grassroots social action in Germany and the United Kingdom that has evolved in response to changing economic policy and expanding needs from basic items such as food to more complex means to move out of poverty Bringing together scholars from different disciplines and practitioners in several areas of social intervention the book explores how the conceptualization and constitutive practices of citizenship and community are changing because of the retreat of the State and the challenge of meeting social and material needs creating new opportunities for local activism The book provides new ways of thinking about social and political belonging and about the relations between individual collective and State responsibility

Playing with Fish and Other Lessons from the North Robert James Wolfe, 2006 A cultural anthropologist from California Wolfe spent twenty years in Alaska documenting the traditional hunting and fishing practices of Alaska Natives and discovered much about sustainable relationships between people and nature In this series of thought provoking essays contrasting California and Alaska worlds far apart yet connected by peoples cultural traditions and ecology he challenges readers to reflect on their own personal conduct within nature and within our multicultural world
