A FOREWORD BY RUTH SUTHERLAND CEO OF RELATE Couple Therapy is a very innovative book exploring the private worlds of two fictional couples plus one family going through RELATE counselling It is comic strip type graphic novel which highlights relationship issues in an exciting easy and highly readable way A must read for anybody experiencing problems in a relationship Cary L Cooper CBE Distinguished Professor of Organizational Psychology and Health at Lancaster University UK and President of Relate This wonderfully creative book provides a unique insight into the Relate counselling room It is written with clarity and integrity and I would highly recommend it to anyone interested in learning more about Relate counselling Jenny Porter Supervisor Relate Cymru and Tutor at The Relate Institute UK This graphic novel explores some of the problems we all face in our relationships and beautifully describes what goes on in the counselling room to solve them I love the real feeling of being in the room that the cartoons convey and then the what s going on in the counsellor s head commentary adds depth followed by some excellent supervision of the work at the end of each chapter There s no dumbing down and the book gives real insights into the couple and family counselling process Marvellous Gwilym Roberts Chief Executive Relate Cymru UK This beautifully illustrated graphic novel provides an informative and accessible guide to systemic oriented couple therapy with accompanying comments and thoughts helping the reader to understand the way the couple feels and the therapist works with their problems The book can be recommended to anyone who wants to get an idea of what happens in couple therapy Dr Andreas Vossler Director of the Foundation Degree in Counselling The Open University UK Full of the drama and humanity of couple therapy Barbara Bloomfield s thoughtful holding interventions and reflections match the vivid characters illustrated by Chris Radley in this energetic graphic narrative that showreels fictionalised episodes from inside the confidential couple therapy room Entertaining reflective moving and educational this is a riveting read Claire Williamson Programme Leader MSc in Creative Writing for Therapeutic Purposes Metanoia Institute UK

Choosing Students Wayne Camara, Ernest W. Kimmel, 2005-03-23 This volume brings a variety of perspectives to bear on the issue of how higher education institutions can or should choose students during the early part of the 21st century Many of the contributors report on research to develop and validate potential tools to assist those responsible for admission decisions Other contributors however pose broader questions about the nature of selective admissions about institutional responses to the changing demography of those seeking to enter higher education or about the appropriate criteria of success in higher education The volume is particularly timely because the question of how changes in admission tools and processes will affect campus diversity following the recent Supreme Court decision concerning the University of Michigan Diversity is an important concern of all of the contributors and the chapter by Lee Bollinger President at Michigan at the time the court cases were filed is particularly relevant This book brings together the research that underlies a variety of proposed approaches to improving the selection of students Providing support for the integrity of the admissions process and the validity of new tools to help a higher education institution to select a diverse student body this book explores the implications of the assessment component of K 12 school reform for higher education admissions practices The diverse contributions to this volume reflect the current ferment in educational research and educational practice as institutions of higher education seek to develop a new admissions paradigm for coming decades following the University of Michigan decisions This book is intended for those leaders and professionals who set admission policies and practices in American colleges and graduate and professional schools as well as for those scholars and scientists who research develop and validate tools for use in the process of choosing students in ways that are congruent with an institution s mission values and goals ICEMS 2019
