liturgical manuscripts such as a sixth century manuscript by hymnwriter and preacher Romanos Melodus or a tenth century ekphrastic liturgical manuscript Extending her research on sixteenth century English composers as musical interpreters Porter includes several papers on how musicians have functioned as theological interpreters in worship and music One chapter engages theological comparisons between well known compositions by Bach Beethoven and Stravinsky another creatively explores what contemporary worship leaders can learn from sixteenth century songwriter and worship leader William Byrd while others invite thoughtful reflection on what we can all learn if we stop to consider how Christians have functioned and fared in their worship through the centuries
