Clark Gellings,2020-12-17 Through different applications electricity provides the energy required for light heat comfort and mechanical work In order to sustain society s expectation for comfort convenience and productivity it will remain necessary to continue to seek and find reasonable quantities of energy in forms which are accessible affordable and have modest or zero environmental impacts This in turn will call for an international imperative to make existing uses of electricity both efficient and practical This book will guide the reader toward a clearer vision of that goal with explanations of the concept of electrification along with CO2 reductions through expanded end use applications of electricity Topics will include electric cars airport seaport railroad and mining electrification industrial uses of electricity in a variety of processes residential building use of electricity and enhancing energy efficiency and demand response The Washington Post Index ,2000

A National Force Peter Kasurak,2013-11-01 Canadians consider the period between the Second World War and the unification of the armed services in 1968 as a golden age a time when their army dropped the shackles of its imperial past and emerged as a truly national peacekeeping force In this landmark book Peter Kasurak draws on recently declassified documents to show that this era was in fact clouded by the army s failure to loosen the grasp of British army culture produce its own doctrine and advise political leaders effectively The discrepancy between the army s goals and the Canadian state s aspirations as a peacemaker in the postwar world resulted in a series of civilian military crises that ended only when the scandal of the Somalia Affair in 1993 forced reform Kasurak offers an illuminating account of the organizational growing pains that wracked the Canada s army as it evolved into a force that could reflect the aspirations of both its country and military leadership Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1995-02 National Union Catalog ,1973 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964
