and Planning Clara H. Greed, 2003-09-02 Planning is currently a male profession but an analysis of a century of town planning reveals this to be a new development women have been central to the planning movement since it began Women and Planning is the first comprehensive history and analysis of women and the planning movement covering the philosophical practical and policy dimensions of planning for women Beyond the marginalization of women modern scientific planning hides a story of past links with eugenics colonialism artistic utopian and religious movements and the occult Central to the discussion is the questioning of how male planners have rewritten planning in their own image projecting patriarchal assumptions in their creation of urban realities Issues of class sexuality ethnicity and disability are raised by the fundamental question of Who is being planned for People in Polytechnics Julia Whitburn, Maurice Mealing, Caroline Cox, 1976

Honiara Clive Moore, 2022-05-13 Nahona ara means facing the ara the place where the southeast winds meet the land just west of Point Cruz Nahona ara became Honiara the capital city of Solomon Islands with a population of 160 000 the only significant urban centre in a nation of 721 000 people Honiara Village City of Solomon Islands views Honiara in several ways first as Tandai traditional land then as coconut plantations between the 1880s and 1930s within the British protectorate 1893 1978 and its Guadalcanal District in the 1942 45 war years which created the first urban settlement in the directly post war period until 1952 as the new capital of the protectorate replacing Tulagi and then as the headquarters of the Western Pacific High Commission WPHC between 1953 and 1974 Finally in 1978 Honiara became the capital of the independent nation of Solomon Islands and the headquarters of Guadalcanal Province The book argues that over decades there have been four and sometimes five changing and intersecting Honiara worlds operating at one time each of different social economic and political significance The importance of each group British Solomon Islanders other Pacific Islanders Asians and more recently the 2003 17 presence of the Regional Assistance Mission to Solomon Islands RAMSI has changed over time

Biologist, 1981 Governance Reforms in European University Systems Karsten Krüger, Martí Parellada, Daniel Samoilovich, Andrée Sursock, 2018-02-21 This book examines governance reforms in higher education in six European countries Austria Denmark Finland France the Netherlands and Portugal It focuses in particular on the governance of the systems and institutions in these countries The book shows that each of the national reform processes has been characterised by its own specific pathways embedded in the country's specific socio economic contexts and cultures but also has a number of features in common with the other countries and processes The first chapter of the book presents a conceptual framework to analyse the reform processes as an implementation game played by several actors with diverse interests The second chapter describes the national reform processes of the six selected countries giving a voice to the individual university rectors and officials who played an important role during the reform processes Their stories constitute a vivid narrative of the government drivers of reform and of the rationales of the institutions as main partners in the reform processes These narratives are analysed complemented by and contrasted with a review of the literature on the subject in the third chapter The final chapter consists of concluding remarks and lessons learned Education, Manpower, and Development in Singapore Eng Fong Pang, 1982 Essays on educational planning labour force and economic development trends from 1957 to 1980 in Singapore discusses labour force participation employment creation labour market allocations basic needs satisfaction income distribution labour mobility technicians and professional worker labour demand human resources development migration policies population policies impact of educational levels on income etc Bibliography diagram and graphs
