Culver,1953 Mission My Town Mark Hein,2019-07-29 Have you ever questioned your purpose in the stage and location of life you are in currently Do you ever wonder if you are making a difference or if you are even on the path that God intended Does it seem like others around you are experiencing a faith adventure or a mission experience that you are missing out on We don t have to travel to far corners of the world to be on mission This book is an invitation and exploration to open your heart and eyes to experience the mission he has for you right in the community you are in Understand your Mission My Town Enfleshing Theology Michele Saracino,Robert J. Rivera,2018-10-31 Enfleshing Theology honors and engages the life work of M Shawn Copeland whose theology is groundbreaking and prophetic traversing the fields of Catholic Theology Black Theology Womanist Thought and Semiotics The book opens with a brief introduction and then moves to an interview with Copeland which connects her theology to her life stories The conversation with Copeland also provides a backdrop to the seventeen essays that follow extending Copeland s theological worldview The contributions are divided according to the following sections embodiment discipleship and politics The essays in the section entitled Engaging Embodiment critically reflect on the importance of embodiment in Christian theology and contemporary culture Following Copeland s lead authors in this section theorize and theologize the body particularly but not limited to Black women s bodies as a locus theologicus that reveals mediates and shapes the splendor and suffering reality of human existence The next section entitled Engaging Discipleship focuses on the concrete challenges of following Jesus in today s world The essays included in this section reflect on Copeland s focus on Jesus particularity in terms of his solidarity with and for others Discipleship is about modeling and mentoring so scholars in this section also comment on Copeland s contribution to teaching and pedagogy The last section entitled Engaging the Political interrogates the political implications of the theological It is noteworthy that there are two trajectories of the political here one is Copeland s development of political theology through the lens of Canadian Jesuit theologian Bernard Lonergan The other trajectory focuses on the work of theology in contemporary art and politics These three sections are fluid and overlap with one another Several of the articles on embodiment speak to questions of solidarity and a few of the essays on discipleship clearly present as political The ways in which each of the contributions in this volume overlap with each other attests to the complex nature of doing constructive theology today and even more how Copeland s work is at the forefront of that multi layered polyvalent intersectional theological work For Such a Time as This Risher, Sharon,Emmons, Sherri Wood ,2019-06-11 The instant her phone rang Reverend Sharon Risher sensed something was horribly wrong Something had happened at Emanuel AME Church the church of her youth in Charleston South Carolina and she knew her mother was likely in the church at Bible study Even before she heard the news her chaplain s instinct told her the awful truth her mother was dead along with two cousins What she couldn t imagine was that they had been murdered by a white supremacist Plunged into the depths of mourning and anger and shock Sharon could have wallowed in the pain Instead she chose the path of forgiveness and hope eventually forgiving the convicted killer for his crime In this powerful memoir of faith family and loss Sharon begins the story with her mother Ethel Lee Lance seeking refuge in the church from poverty and scorn and raising her family despite unfathomable violence that rattled Sharon to her core years later how Sharon overcame her own struggles and answered the call to ministry and how in the loss of her dear mother Sharon has become a nationally known speaker as she shares her raw riveting story of losing loved ones to gun violence and racism Sharon s story is a story of transformation How an anonymous hospital chaplain was thrust into the national spotlight joining survivors of other gun related horrors as reluctant speakers for a heartbroken social justice movement As she recounts her grief and the struggle to forgive the killer Risher learns to trust God s timing and lean on God s loving presence to guide her steps Where her faith journey leads her is surprising and inspiring as she finds a renewed purpose to her life in the company of other survivors Risher has been interviewed by Time Magazine Marie Claire Essence Guardian BCC Radio CNN and other media sources She regularly shares her story on American college campuses and racial reconciliation events To Forgive a Killer her essay as told to Abigail Pesta published in Notre Dame Magazine won the 2018 Front Page Award for Essay published in a Magazine awarded by the Newswomen s Club of New York White Kids Margaret A. Hagerman, 2020-02-01 Winner 2019 William J Goode Book Award given by the Family Section of the American Sociological Association Finalist 2019 C Wright Mills Award given by the Society for the Study of Social Problems Riveting stories of how affluent white children learn about race American kids are living in a world of ongoing public debates about race daily displays of racial injustice and for some an increased awareness surrounding diversity and inclusion In this heated context sociologist Margaret A Hagerman zeroes in on affluent white kids to observe how they make sense of privilege unequal educational opportunities and police violence In fascinating detail Hagerman considers the role that they and their families play in the reproduction of racism and racial inequality in America White Kids based on two years of research involving in depth interviews with white kids and their families is a clear eyed and sometimes shocking account of how white kids learn about race In doing so this book explores questions such as How do white kids learn about race when they grow up in families that do not talk openly about race or acknowledge its impact and What about children growing up in families with parents who consider themselves to be anti racist Featuring the actual voices of young affluent white kids and what they think about race racism inequality and privilege White Kids illuminates how white racial socialization is much more dynamic complex and varied than previously recognized It is a process that stretches beyond white parents explicit conversations with their white children and includes not only the choices parents make about neighborhoods schools peer groups extracurricular activities and media but also the choices made by the kids themselves By interviewing kids who are growing up in different racial contexts from racially segregated to meaningfully integrated and from politically progressive to conservative this important book documents key differences in the outcomes of white racial socialization across families And by observing families in their everyday lives this book explores the extent to which white families even those with anti racist intentions reproduce and reinforce the forms of inequality they say they reject Rethinking the Color Line Charles A. Gallagher,2022-01-20 Rethinking the Color Line helps make sense of how race and ethnicity influence aspects of social life in ways that are often made invisible by culture politics and economics Charles A Gallagher has assembled a collection of readings that are theoretically informed and empirically grounded to explain the dynamics of race and ethnicity in the United States Students will be equipped to confidently navigate the issues of race and ethnicity examine its contradictions and gain a comprehensive understanding of how race and ethnic relations are embedded in the institutions that structure their lives User friendly without sacrificing intellectual or theoretical rigor the Seventh Edition has been thoroughly updated to reflect the current debates and the state of contemporary U S race relations
