commitments UNESCO,2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover

SADC Gender Protocol 2014 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe,Dube, Sifiso,2014-10-25 In August 2008 Heads of State of the Southern African Development Community adopted the ground breaking SADC Protocol on Gender and Development This followed a concerted campaign by NGOs under the umbrella of the Southern Africa Gender Protocol Alliance By the 2013 Heads of State summit 13 countries had signed and 12 countries had ratified the SADC Gender Protocol The Protocol is now in force With one year to go time is ticking to 2015 when governments need to have achieved 28 targets for the attainment of gender equality In keeping with the Alliance slogan Yes we must this 2014 Barometer provides a wealth of updated data against which progress will be measure by all those who cherish democracy in the region The world and SADC is also looking to the future with the post 2015 agenda Now is the time to strengthen resolve reconsider reposition and re strategise for 2030

Building from the Rubble Lloyd Sachikonye, Brian Raftopoulos, 2018-09-23 Building from the Rubble is the latest volume to trace the history of Zimbabwe's labour movement following Keep on Knocking 1997 and Striking Back 2001. Even though it focuses on the period between 2000-2017, the analysis reviews the changes in trade unionism throughout the post-colonial era. For much of this period, the unions faced massive challenges including state violence and repression, funding limitations, splits, factionalism, and problems of organising at factory level. Perhaps the greatest challenge was the massive structural change in the economy: Deindustrialisation and the informalisation of work decimated the potential membership of the unions and redefined the trajectory of the movement. The growing precarity of work and the loss of formal employment placed the future of trade unions in great jeopardy. Notwithstanding these challenges, the importance of the labour movement continued to resonate with workers. The editors conclude that the unions need to reconnect with their social base at the workplace and rebuild structures and alliances in the informal economy, the rural sector, and with residents' associations and social media movements. This, they write, is a critical post-Mugabe agenda that should be seized by the labour movement at all levels, from shop floor to district, regional, and national spaces.

Harnessing Migration for Inclusive Growth and Development in Southern Africa Crush, Jonathan, Dodson, Belinda, 2017-04-11 The primary goal of this study is to present the results of a comprehensive scope of key opportunities and challenges for harnessing migration for inclusive growth and development at the regional level in Southern Africa. The main objectives were as follows: Provide an overview of regional migration stocks and flows; identifying regional trends, drivers, and impacts from existing research literature and official data; Profile migrant characteristics at the regional level including demographic composition, types of migration, and occupational profile; Examine the relevance of multilateral, continental, and regional migration instruments, policies, protocols, agreements, and forums with a view to identifying actions required to move the regional migration management agenda forward and align with the goal of enhancing migration for inclusive growth and development in Southern Africa; Analyze the key initiatives, opportunities, and obstacles to developing a coherent, integrated, and rights-regarding approach to migration management, including areas of common commitment and ownership, and points of actual and potential conflict and disagreement between states; Conduct a gender analysis of regional migration dynamics, including gender dimensions of migration challenges, dangers, and vulnerabilities confronting migrant women and other vulnerable groups; and gender analysis of migration management in Southern Africa; Identify potential programming areas that are weak or underdeveloped.

Archives, Objects, Places and Landscapes Manyanga, Munyaradzi, Chirikure, Shadreck, 2017-04-11 Dissatisfaction has matured in Africa and elsewhere around the fact that often the dominant frameworks for interpreting the continent's past are not rooted on the continent's value system and philosophy. This creates knowledge that does not make sense, especially to local communities. The big question therefore is: can Africans develop theories that can contribute towards the interpretation of the African past using their own experiences? Framed within a concept revision substrate, the collection of papers in this thought provoking volume argues for concept revision as a step towards decolonizing knowledge in the post colony The various papers powerfully expose that cleansed knowledge is not only locally relevant it is also locally accessible and globally understandable
