reconstruction techniques and novel approaches for melanoma Document ,1875 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1882 Cancer and Sexual Health John P Mulhall, Luca Incrocci, Irwin Goldstein, Ray Rosen, 2011-04-23 The average physician and even cancer care givers are not knowledgeable about the effects of cancer treatment on sex and reproductive life They are even less aware of the options available for treatment of such patients Cancer and Sexual Health fills a great need for a reference work devoted to the link between cancer and human sexuality The volume is designed to give a comprehensive and state of the art review of the sexual and reproductive consequences of cancer diagnosis and treatment It will prove an invaluable resource for those clinicians caring for cancer patients as well as acting as a reference text for the sexual medicine clinician who may not see a large number of cancer patients Colorado School Journal ,1895 Gender, Ethnicity, and Health Research Sana Loue, 2007-05-08 Health researchers routinely evaluate health and illness across subgroups defined by their sex gender ethnicity and race All too often these classifications are proffered as an explanation for any differences that may be detected for example in access to care frequency of disease or response to treatment Relatively few researchers however have examined what these classifications mean on a theoretical level or in the context of their own research Assume for example that a researcher concludes from his or her data that African Americans utilize certain surgical procedures less frequently than whites This conclusion may mean little without an examination of the various underlying issues Is there such a construct as race at all How were whites and African Americans classified as such Does this finding reflect inappropriate overutilization of the specific procedures among whites or inappropriate underutilization among African Americans To what extent are socioeconomic status and method of payment related to the less frequent use Are there differences in the manner in which health care providers present the various treatment options to whites and to African Americans that could account for these differences in utilization Are there differences in health care seeking and health care preferences between the two groups that would explain the difference in utilization Is the racial classification a surrogate measure for another variable that has remained unidentified and unmeasured All too often unfortunately such issues are ignored or lightly dismissed with an entreaty for additional research
