Elie Wiesel's Night Harold Bloom, Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom, 2014-05-14 Discusses the characters plot and writing of Night by Elie Wiesel Includes critical essays on the novel and a brief biography of the author

Responses to Elie Wiesel Harry J. Cargas, B'nai B'rith. Anti-defamation League, 1978 There are no Right Answers to Wrong Questions Peter C. Wilcox, 2016-06-28 Abraham Joshua Heschel said that We are closer to God when we are asking questions than when we have the answers He believed that to be a Christian is not to be a person who knows all the answers but one who lives in the part of the self where the question is constantly being born Most of us don't think very much about our questions In our culture we are accustomed to being able to find out answers to nearly any question just by typing it into Google search or asking Siri But behind any answer there is always a question Sometimes the question isn't clear to us sometimes it is not very well articulated even to ourselves But it is always there In over thirty years as a psychotherapist and spiritual director Peter C Wilcox has seen how the questions people ask themselves have shaped their lives in some very important ways This book is an invitation to see how important it is to learn how to ask the right questions about our lives This is because our choice of questions leads us on a path of discovery towards answers that help us to grow spiritually and psychologically Our questions orient our lives and give direction to us We will see that they enable us to make fifteen choices that have a tremendous impact on the kind of person we become

Murray Joseph Haar, 2022-12-19 This is the story of Dr Murray Haar's odyssey from Jewish tradition to Christianity and back again As the child of Holocaust survivors he struggled with questions of God and faith and finally left the religious tradition of his youth behind He became an ordained Lutheran pastor and professor at a midwestern Lutheran College Ultimately through the influence of Elie Wiesel he found the way back home to the Jewish tradition and community of his birth

Fantasies of Witnessing Gary Weissman, 2018-07-05 Fantasies of Witnessing explores how and why those deeply interested in the Holocaust yet with no direct familial connection to it endeavor to experience it vicariously through sites or texts designed to make it real for nonwitnesses Gary Weissman argues that far from overwhelming nonwitnesses with its magnitude of horror the Holocaust threatens to feel distant and unreal A prevailing rhetoric of secondary memory and trauma he contends and efforts to portray the Holocaust as an immediate and personal experience are responses to an encroaching sense of unreality In America we are haunted not by the traumatic impact of the Holocaust but by its absence When we take an interest in the Holocaust we are not overcoming a fearful aversion to its horror but endeavoring to actually feel the horror of what otherwise eludes us Weissman focuses on specific attempts to locate the Holocaust in the person of Elie Wiesel the most renowned survivor and his classic memoir Night in videotaped survivor stories and Lawrence L Langer's celebrated book Holocaust Testimonies and in the films Shoah and Schindler's List These representations he explains constitute a movement away from the view popularized by Wiesel that those who did not live through the Holocaust will never be able to grasp its horror and toward re creating the Holocaust as an experience nonwitnesses may put themselves through It is only by acknowledging the desire that gives shape to such representations and by exploring their place in the ongoing contest over who really knows the Holocaust and feels its horror that we can arrive at a more candid assessment of our current and future relationships to the Holocaust he says I Was Gone Long Before I Left Peter C. Wilcox,2020-09-15 In St Teresa of Avila's classic spiritual book Interior Castle she describes a difficult period of time in her spiritual journey when she said When I think of myself I feel like a bird with a broken wing When I left the monastery thirty eight years ago this was exactly how I felt I Was Gone Long Before I Left is the story about my interior struggle to leave the monastery after living this lifestyle for over twenty five years It explores the reasons why I went to the monastery why I stayed why I eventually left and what I have learned Maybe more importantly it describes the many years of mental anguish confusion and depression that I went through to finally make this decision It has brought back many painful memories and experiences and called for an honesty and vulnerability that I found daunting For over thirty eight years I have been unable to write about my experience of life in the monastery because I felt ashamed For years I thought about leaving but couldn't make this decision because I felt paralyzed psychologically and emotionally Now after all these years I have found the courage to share my story CliffsNotes on Wiesel's Night Maryam Riess,1999-03-03 The original CliffsNotes study guides offer expert commentary on major themes plots characters literary devices and historical background In CliffsNotes on Wiesel's Night you follow the humanistic first person account of a teenage boy's incarceration by the Nazi Secret Service in World War II his experiences in the Auschwitz and Buchenwald death camps and his struggle to find meaning among the horror Covering little more than a year of the young narrator's life this study guide shares a story about endurance loyalty and faith all nurtured by the strength of love Other features that help you figure out this important work include Life and background of the author Dr Elie Wiesel A list of characters A historical timeline of Nazi Germany A review section that tests your knowledge and suggests essay topics A selected bibliography that leads you to more great resources Classic literature or modern day treasure you'll understand it all with expert information and insight from CliffsNotes study guides Long Night's Journey into Day Alice L. Eckardt,A. Roy Eckardt,Irving Greenberg,Franklin H. Littell,2016-11-08 Long Night's Journey Into Day is a stimulating and provocative attempt to deal with the impact and meaning of the Holocaust within contemporary Christian and Jewish thought To Jews the Holocaust is the most terrible happening in their history but it must also be seen as a Christian event The Eckardts call for a radical rethinking of the Christian faith in the light of the Holocaust examining such issues as the relation between human and demonic culpability the charge of God's guilt and the reality of forgiveness They clarify the theological meaning of the Holocaust and the responsibility that must be borne for it by the Christian Church and discuss possible responses to it as exemplified in the writings of selected modern theologians and church councils This enlarged and revised edition takes into account new topics and developments including the issue of Austrian responsibility for the Holocaust the significance and aftermath of Bitburg and antisemitism in German feminism More detailed attention is also given to other modern genocides and occasions of humanly caused mass death Additional literary historical and religious works are considered and appropriate quotations incorporated The new edition also includes a revised preface an updated bibliography and two new appendices

Encountering Transcendence Lieven Boeve, Hans Geybels, Stijn Van den Bossche, 2005 This volume consists of several contributions to a refined understanding of religious experience in view of contemporary theological epistemology Diverse sample studies taken from the extensive field of religion theology and religious studies reveal that religious experience is today clearly a pivotal issue More specifically this is made evident in modern theological hermeneutics and in the anti modern and or post modern reactions thereto the theology of world religions and inter religious dialogue the contemporary resurgence of religiosity in Western society and culture and the so called turn to religion in contemporary continental philosophy It would appear from such studies that the category of religious experience is frequently called upon to clarify or explain the phenomenon of religion and religiosity on the one hand and to support and legitimise religious positions or the critique thereof on the other Because of the loss of plausibility of tradition bound religiosity and of foundational so called onto theological schemes religious experience has come to constitute for many the last or latest point of departure and anchor for religion and religious thinking This is certainly the case with respect to tendencies within contemporary Christian traditions and theological reflection In a multitude of ways and from a variety of different perspectives religious experience and experience of transcendence or of the divine have gained a prominent place in philosophical and fundamental theological conceptual schemes In reaction to this other authors have denied the very primacy given to religious experience in reflecting upon faith pointing to the constitutive role of tradition and narrative without which there is no religious experience From all this follows that the category of religious experience is in great need of reconceptualisation not least from a theological point of view On the one hand religious experience is all too easily called upon to legitimise religious claims often against tradition and on the other hand the category has become misleading in so far as it is tainted by the modern scientific understanding of experience in reaction to which tradition is then easily invoked to protect the core of religion Both young scholars at the preceding junior conference and senior scholars during the conference s paper sessions presented from diverse perspectives new ways to conceive of religious experience in view of today s challenges of secularisation religious plurality the aestheticisation of religion etc The selected contributions have been arranged in four thematically oriented parts Approaching Religious Experience in a Postmodern Age Modern re Thinking of Religious Experience Liberating Religious Experience and Challenges for Spirituality

Author's Note From a very early age I've felt like the world was spinning too fast I was always playing catchup and going against my inner natural pace Yoga for me became a way to connect with my intuitive rhythm It has taught me again and again about what it means to simply be with myself and with the world around me After a while I started wondering if I could stay as present in everyday challenges and happenings as I was when I was moving and breathing in my asana practice I'd started on a yoga mat but my practice never felt quite powerful enough to infiltrate all areas of my life Why was it so difficult to say no to things I didn't want to do when I'd been learning about that in my physical practice Why would I not let myself flow in my creative projects as much as my breath during meditation This book is part of my journey of discovering how yoga can truly be a practice of every day every hour every minute It is a collection of my attempts at putting together building blocks of awareness so I always find pockets of connection whether I'm sitting on a loud train cooking a meal or deep into my email inbox I hope you find comfort and ways to cultivate confidence through these pages May the reflections and practice build the freedom and intuition you need to let the wonderful practice of yoga take the shape it needs to serve you and your communities With love and curiosity Ely

Pained Screams from Camps Aisling Reid, Valentina Surace, 2024-06-17 Detention camps exceed the juridical concept of punishment and crime This book comprises two parts 1 a collected volume that discusses camps not as something of the past but as a paradigmatic political space in which ordinary law is completely suspended and 2 an Italian English parallel text of the war diary of an Italian prisoner during his confinement at the Stalag X B internment camp near Sandbostel from 1943 1945

1 The Human Condition of Exception Collected Essays Edited by Aisling Reid and Valentina Surace Written in Italian and English the essays collected in this volume explore the issue of camps and suffering from various perspectives including philosophical inquiry literary analysis historical description and legal assessment As Agamben suggests the camp embodies the state of exception A dehumanising camp life will therefore emerge every time such a structure is created What happens in camps exceeds the juridical concept of punishment as well as that of crime Prisoners are faced with a useless pain Levinas as it is not the expiation of a fault Prisoners attempt to describe their extreme suffering through their diaries Their experience

however cannot be entirely communicated Even their screams which express humanity at the extreme limit of its un power are silenced Given the recent popularity of right wing politics as well as the centenary of Mussolini s march on Rome such research is more urgent than ever The book will appeal to readers with an interest in philosophy as well as Irish history scholars studying internment during Partition and The Troubles in Northern Ireland 2 Aldo Quarisa s Diary An Italian English Edition Edited by Aisling Reid and Valentina Surace Transcribed and with a preface by Galileo Sartor Translation of the diary by Aisling Reid Italian English In 1943 Aldo Quarisa worked at a military school in Florence where he taught literature In October of that year one month after Italy had surrendered to the Allied forces the Italians declared war on the Germans In Florence the German occupiers responded quickly by arresting and deporting people with military connections to numerous concentration camps in Austria Quite suddenly Aldo was detained and deported through a network of camps including Benjaminovo and the Stalag X B internment camp near the German village of Sandbostel For two years he found himself imprisoned alongside other Italians including the celebrated journalist Giovannino Guareschi who secretly kept a diary that was later published as his Diario Clandestino 1943 1945 in 1946 Much like Guareschi Aldo also kept a diary and excerpts are published here in both Italian and English for the first time The diary describes in unprecedented detail the monotony of camp life the cruelty of the guards and the prisoners struggle to survive The text is an important document that preserves the memory and voices of all those who suffered during the war and will inevitably be of interest to readers with an interest in World War II

Where All Hope Lies James R. Van Tholen, 2003 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable Where All Hope Lies presents fifty six select sermons by James Van Tholen a gifted young pastor who lost his battle with cancer in January 2001 at the age of thirty six Though Jim s untimely death gives a certain poignancy to this volume these sermons are far from dark or despairing Van Tholen s conversational style thought provoking insights into Scripture and frequent interaction with such writers as Flannery O Connor Frederick Buechner Kathleen Norris and others make these sermons truly enjoyable as well as profitable to read Through them all there runs a sense of concentrating on what really matters trusting in God no matter what suffering or difficulties might come our way Indeed as demonstrated by the book s title sermon first published in Christianity Today as Surprised by Death more than anything Van Tholen preached the grace and goodness of God Including a foreword by Neal
