A Tale Unfinished And Yet To Be Told A Novellette:

The Short Story after Apartheid Graham K. Riach, 2023-10-15 Honourable Mention in the 2023 British Association for Contemporary Literary Studies Monograph Prize The Short Story after Apartheid offers the first major study of the anglophone short story in South Africa since apartheid's end By focusing on the short story this book complicates models of South African literature dominated by the novel and contributes to a much needed generic and formalist turn in postcolonial studies Literary texts are sites of productive struggle between formal and extra formal concerns and these brief fragmentary elliptical formally innovative stories offer perspectives that reframe or revise important concerns of post apartheid literature the aesthetics of engaged writing the politics of the past class and race the legacies of violence and the struggle over the land Through an analysis of key texts from the period by Nadine Gordimer Ivan Vladislavi Zo Wicomb Phaswane Mpe and Henrietta Rose Innes this book assesses the place of the short story in post apartheid writing and develops a fuller model of how artworks allow and disallow forms of social thought

The Short Story Valerie Shaw, 2014-07-21 Throughout this text Valerie Shaw addresses two key questions What are the special satisfactions afforded by reading short stories and How are these satisfactions derived from each story's literary techniques and narrative strategies She then attempts to answer these questions by drawing on stories from different periods and countries by authors who were also great novelists like Henry James Flaubert Kafka and D H Lawrence by authors who specifically dedicated themselves to the art of the short story like Kipling Chekhov and Katherine Mansfield by contemporary practitioners like Angela Carter and Jorge Luis Borges and by unfairly neglected writers like Sarah Orne Jewett and Joel Chandler Harris

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South

African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Expressive Iteration Kenny K.N. Chow, 2025-02-14 A ground breaking guide to thinking about how routine activities can be designed and innovated to develop narrative meaning and a sense of purpose Iteration is an integral part of daily routines such as sleep wake cycles commuting workouts chores or practising an instrument While many iterations just monotonously repeat others can lead to progression or evolution With subtle variations among iterations we can create meaning out of repetitive acts forging narratives from them and thus making them meaningful to us Chow draws on rhetoric psychology narratology and design thinking to show both in theory and in practice how we can innovate the design of mundane and routine activities to give them meaning and expression He does so by examining Asian and European originated examples across a range of domains including visual arts literature digital art video games and mobile applications A must read for designers and enthusiasts looking for ways to innovate across all domains and media and transform tedious repetitive activities into acts of intention

Extinction and Memorial Culture Hannah Stark, 2023-06-23 This book considers how we encounter and make meaning from extinction in diverse settings and cultures It brings together an international and interdisciplinary range of scholars to consider how extinction is memorialised in museums and cultural institutions through monuments in literature and art through public acts of ritual and protest and in everyday practices In an era in which species are becoming extinct at an unprecedented rate we must find new ways to engage critically creatively and courageously with species loss Extinction and Memorial Culture Reckoning with Species Loss in the Anthropocene develops the conceptual tools to think in complex ways about extinctions and their aftermath along with providing new insights into commemorating and mourning more than human lives This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the environmental humanities extinction studies memorial culture and the Anthropocene

Short Stories and Novellas Ismael Casiano Jr., 2010-07 Short Stories and Novellas is an experiment in form and structure that seeks to glean beauty and continuity out of the rhythms inherent in the patterns of our unique and individual experiences and methods of finding understanding in what we read The short stories and novellas could be the lives of the lovers that the distinctive voice of what could be a narrator or not patterns into songlike rhythms or they could represent a hint as to how we are to understand this work of fiction and ultimately the varying experiences composing our own lives Whether Short Stories and Novellas is Fiction Memoir Philosophy or Religion seems to matter less than that it is a poetic effort And as such we are at a point where we can either entirely dismiss such efforts at turning our worlds upside down or we can submit to the quest put forward of letting beauty finally speak for itself in the midst of chaos

A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography a review of existing criticism a lengthier analysis of specific works and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory The Art of Brevity Grant Faulkner, 2023-02-15 With increased compression every word every sentence matters more A writer must learn how to form narratives around caesuras and crevices instead of strings of connections to move a story through the symbolic weight of images to master the power of suggestion With elegant prose deep readings of other writers and scaffolded writing exercises The Art of Brevity takes the reader on a lyrical exploration of compact storytelling guiding readers to heighten their awareness of not only what appears on the page but also what doesn't Junior High School Literature ... William Harris Elson, Christine M. Keck, 1922
