Across the Curriculum Humanities Volume 1 presents exceptional insight into what educators require to facilitate critical and creative thinking skills. Written by scholar educators from across the humanities, each of the thirteen essays in this volume describes strategies educators have successfully executed to develop critical reading skills in students studying the humanities. These include ways to help students focus actively, re-read and reflect to re-think and re-consider, understand the close relationship between reading and writing, become cognizant of the critical importance of context in critical reading and of making contextual connections, learn to ask the right questions in critical reading and reasoning, appreciate reading as dialogue, debate and engaged conversation. In addition, teachers will find an abundance of innovative exercises and activities encouraging students to practice their critical reading skills. These can easily be adapted for and applied across many disciplines and course curricula in the humanities. The lifelong benefits of strong critical reading skills are undeniable. Students with properly developed critical reading skills are confident learners with an enriched understanding of the world around them. They advance academically and are prepared for college success. This book arms educators, librarians, high school teachers, university lecturers and beyond with the tools to teach a most paramount lesson.

Pedigree and Panache

Shireen Huda, 2008-04-01

Art auctions have long captured the public imagination. They regularly make news headlines and have become synonymous with glamour, money and social distinction. The marketing of auction houses and the works they sell has resulted in firms attaining authoritative positions and the ability both to influence and reflect collecting tastes. Pedigree and Panache is the first comprehensive history of the art auction in Australia. In this fascinating work, Shireen Huda investigates the construction of the glamorous reputation of art auctions and art auction houses. Featuring absorbing case studies of key art auctions and major art auction houses in Australia, including Christies, Sothebys and Deutscher Menzies, the work provides an overview of the origin and international development of art auctions. The development of the Australian marketplace is then explored, detailing colonial inception and continuing until Christies' withdrawal of its saleroom presence in 2006. Provided by publisher.
