

A smiling male technician with brown hair and a beard, wearing blue overalls over a light blue shirt, is kneeling on a grey floor next to a tall, modern stainless steel refrigerator. He is holding a wrench in his right hand and has his left hand on the refrigerator door. The refrigerator has a large digital touchscreen on the right door displaying various icons and a water dispenser on the left door. The background is a modern kitchen with dark grey cabinets, a wooden countertop, a white tiled backsplash, and a black range hood. There are large windows on the left and right sides, and several potted plants are visible.
