Sándor Gyula Nagy

Application Form For Potchefstroom University 2016:

Self-Directed Learning in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic Josef de Beer, Neal Petersen, Elsa Mentz, Robert J. Balfour, 2023-03-01 The book is devoted to scholarship in the field of pre service teacher education with a specific focus on research into the enhancement of self directed learning and contributes to the discourse on creating a disposition towards self directed learning during the social and academic integration of first year students within higher education institutions Two chapters also deal with research on the development of self directed learning and nuanced understandings of the chosen professions of Law and Health Sciences students The target audience is scholars working in the fields of teacher education self directed learning engaging pedagogies problem based learning cooperative learning and gamification Whereas social constructivist learning theory served as an overarching theoretical framework for the virtual excursions the various chapters in the book also draw on other secondary theories such as self determination theory social interdependence theory gender theory and the with fitness model of Kounin 1970 There is no Supreme Constitution Koos Malan, 2019-10-04 None of the articles of faith of the South African Constitution is plausible The Constitution is not supreme and entrenched Subject to potent socio political forces it changes continuously and often profoundly regardless of stringent amendment requirements The trite threefold separation of powers is more metaphorical than real and therefore unable to secure effective checks and balances Though institutionally separated with their own personnel and functions the three powers are ordinarily integrated in a single dominant political leadership committed to achieving the same ideological goals The bill of individual rights cannot guarantee justice because rights are subject to the ideologically driven exercise of judicial interpretation often with damaging consequences for those relying on the bill of rights This situation does not only apply to South Africa but to all Constitutions premised on the same articles of faith in this book described as the doctrine of statist individualist constitutionalism An improved mode of constitutionalism is called for one which is equipped with a sounder system of checks and balances and better endowed towards the achievement of justice through a balanced constitution Future of Tourism in Asia Anukrati Sharma, Azizul Hassan, 2022-01-01 This book offers a meticulous overview of the future of tourism in Asian countries This book provides new dimensions to the tourism research and tourism industry as it is concerned with the future vision of tourism in Asia The main purpose of the book is to envision the outcomes both positive and negative from the tourism industry to prepare our future generations This book expands on the concept that tourism is not sedentary and is ever changing rapidly A unique feature of the book is that it brings into limelight the unexplored places of Asia as well as a growth of low cost tourism in Asia This book discusses how Asia can enjoy the competitive advantage in future Also whether the future outlook is bright or dark for the tourism sector in the Asia region This book highlights the unexplored themes of tourism in Asia such as Over tourism Sports Tourism Baby Boomers and Seenger Tourism Literary Tourism Experiential Tourism Psychographic Segmentation of Future Tourists The chapters have been authored by experts in their respective fields This book allows readers to explore how different Asian countries might best serve tourism products in the future

Community-based Research with Vulnerable Populations Lesley Wood, 2022-01-01 This book advocates for community based research with vulnerable populations within the field of higher education The chapters outline how research can democratize knowledge generation to make it more accessible and socially relevant and emphasizes the value of the lived and experiential knowledge of vulnerable and marginalized populations Rooted in a critique of the current practices of higher education that fail to support participatory and transformative research the research is structured at micro macro and meso levels to ultimately emancipate colonized thinking of stakeholders about power privilege and participation Focusing primarily on various contexts within the Global South the contributors argue that the time is ripe for community based research which combines the theoretical knowledge of the academy with the local experiential knowledge of those experiencing the consequences of social inequality to co construct knowledge for change Theology and the (post)apartheid condition Rian Venter, 2016-12-01 Knowledge transmission and generation belong to the core mission of the public university In democratic South Africa the transformation of these processes and practices in higher education has become an urgent and contested task The Faculty of Theology at the University of the Free State has already done some original work on the implications of these for theology One area of investigation that has not yet received due attention concerns the role of theological disciplines and especially the relation between academic disciplines and societal dynamics This research project addresses the challenge and this volume reflects the intellectual endeavour of lectures research fellows and a post graduate student associated with the faculty Each theological discipline has its own history and has already experienced reconstruction both globally and in South Africa Some of these genealogical developments and re envisioning are mapped by the contributions in this volume The critical questions addressed are what are the contours of the post apartheid condition and what are the implications for responsible disciplinary practices in theology The chapters convey an impression of the vitality of theology at the University of the Free State and in South Africa and give expression to fundamental shifts that have taken place in theological disciplines and also of future tasks This research project aims to stimulate reflection on responsible and innovative disciplinary practices of theology in South Africa which we envisage will contribute to social justice and human flourishing Rian Venter University of the Free State Theology in Transition Katrin Kusmierz, 2016 South African theologians have long been powerful voices in the hard fought political transition from a repressive apartheid regime to a young democracy A key question is What should the public role of churches be in this democracy The simultaneously emerging global discussion on public theology has been one important point of reference offering a number of frameworks for thinking about the churches public role This book considers answers given by South African theologians beginning with an historical review of approaches taken during apartheid and tracing their development in the two decades following Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der ffentlichkeit Vol 8 Subject Religious Studies African Studies The Dominican Friars in Southern Africa Philippe Denis, 2016-05-18 The purpose of this book is to gather in a single narrative the rather disparate stories of Dominican friars in Southern Africa over the past four centuries Dominicans from Portugal and Portuguese India were present in South East Africa from 1577 to 1835 Patrick Raymond Griffith an Irish Dominican became the first resident bishop in South Africa in 1837 A Dominican mission was established in 1917 with the arrival of a group of English friars A second group arrived from the Netherlands in 1932 The aim is to provide a social history of the Dominicans in Southern Africa that is a history that deals specifically with the social and cultural factors of historical development The Dominicans ministered in a political social and cultural context which impacted on their apostolic activities and in turn was affected by them The book's terminus ad quem is 1990 when the National Party opened a process of political negotiation thus ending more than forty years of apartheid rule Christian ethics and political economy Morten Bøsterud, Jan C.M. Venter, 2020-12-31 The value free and relativistic human and scientific discourses have led to an era of ideology From fascism at the dawn of the century through liberalism and the associated phenomenon of unfettered statism to the current disillusionment of postmodernism and relativism with endeavours towards new mercantilism All have maintained poverty inequality and created scepticism amongst both lay persons and academics Above all else a renewed yearning for moral and ethical direction in political and economic conduct has been created This book provides a Christian ethical reflection on political economic conduct in South Africa as an alternative to current modernistic ideas This book aims to produce new Christian ethical insight into the value of new liberal perspectives on the enhancement of the South African political economy New Christian ethical insight will be gained through new perspectives on the South African political economy The Economics of Regional Integration Sándor Gyula Nagy, 2025-03-12 This book develops a new methodological framework for measuring the efficiency of regional integration and the integration profile of member states It includes rich case studies which offer a comparative analysis of ten integrations spanning four continents The Americas the European Union Africa and Asia The Economics of Regional Integration shows the importance of regional economic integration in the world economy based partially on descriptive analyses the authors new methodological framework and a new composite index integration profile It implements and quantifies relevant theories e.g. integration maturity competitiveness economic development convergence to one framework and a composite indicator This helps to arrive at a more precise measurement of these integrations resulting in useful feedback for decision makers and leading to policy recommendations for each organisation to improve efficiency or to include new members The text presents a comparative perspective of regional integration based on case studies by applying the same theoretical framework and a comprehensive methodology for assessing the economic readiness of membership seeking countries while also considering regional differences It investigates the impact of regional integration on income inequality and poverty reduction by examining how common development economic policies and social programs implemented by regional organizations affect the distribution of income and wealth among member states The comprehensive investigation of regional integration covering economic social and institutional factors makes the book highly relevant for advanced students researchers and scholars Additionally its potential policy context application makes it useful for policymakers and practitioners participating in regional integration programs
