Applied Practice Heart Of Darkness

John Flavel

Applied Practice Heart Of Darkness:

Heart of Darkness Anthony Fothergill, 1989 Re-imagining Africa African Studies Association of Australasia and the Pacific. Annual Conference, 2001 This book provides a plethora of insights and perspectives that take up and challenge prevailing points of view about today's Africa The chapters examine a number of different media and topics from African theatre to poetry from accounts of personal history to South Africa's language policy and publishing practices Their unifying theme is a search for tomorrow's cultural trends in an ever changing Africa Tears of an Innocent God Elias Marechal, 2015 A book on contemplation Tears of an Innocent God invites the reader to explore the ways of the One who would have us perceive listen and love as Christ did and still does not by imitation but through a gradual inner transformation Straight from the Heart Jamgon Mipham, 2014-04-22 Straight from the Heart brings together an inspiring collection of Buddhist teachings songs of realization meditation instructions and enlightened poetry all chosen for their power to speak directly to the student Drawn from Indian Mahayana and Vajrayana Buddhism as well as from all four schools of Tibetan Buddhism some will impress with their beautiful poetry and powerful imagery others with their profound power of instruction Still others share personal advice for life that seems to come directly from the mouth of the author and some serve as immediate and profound practice instructions Several are just delightfully unconventional even outrageous letting in fresh air on petrified views or musty traditions Most of them are simply unknown precious gems which deserve a wider audience Each of the works is preceded by a brief introduction and a short biography of its author Many of these are legendary accounts of supernatural feats edifying examples for students on the same spiritual path meant to expand their limited outlook with mind blowing stories Miraculous deeds magnificent songs and pithy instructions distinguish this collection assembled by the Buddhist scholar and translator Karl Brunnhölzl whose years of work among dharma texts and his skill as a translator yield a rich mine of teachings all chosen for their ability to speak directly to the heart Humanitarian Fictions Megan Cole Paustian, 2024-01-02 Humanitarianism has a narrative problem Far too often aid to Africa is envisioned through a tale of Western heroes saving African sufferers While labeling white savior narratives has become a familiar gesture it doesn't tell us much about the story as story Humanitarian Fictions aims to understand the workings of humanitarian literature as they engage with and critique narratives of Africa Overlapping with but distinct from human rights humanitarianism centers on a relationship of assistance focusing less on rights than on needs less on legal frameworks than moral ones less on the problem than on the nonstate solution Tracing the white savior narrative back to religious missionaries of the nineteenth century Humanitarian Fictions reveals the influence of religious thought on seemingly secular institutions and uncovers a spiritual collectivist streak in the discourse of humanity Because the humanitarian model of care transcends the boundaries of the state and its networks touch much of the globe Humanitarian Fictions redraws the boundaries of literary classification based on a shared problem space rather than a shared national space The book maps a transnational vein of Anglophone literature about Africa that features missionaries humanitarians and their so called beneficiaries Putting humanitarian thought in conversation with postcolonial critique this book brings together African British and U S writers typically read within separate traditions Paustian shows how the novel with its profound sensitivity to narrative can enrich the critique of white saviorism while also imagining alternatives that give African agency its due
