The Scientific Imagination in South Africa William Beinart, Saul Dubow, 2021-05-20 An innovative three hundred year exploration of the social and political contexts of science and the scientific imagination in South Africa

The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability Racism and capitalism have a long history of entanglement Nowhere is this more evident than in South Africa where colonial and apartheid regimes used explicit systems of racial hierarchy to shore up profit It is therefore no surprise that South Africa has represented a key site for thinking about the role that racism plays in shaping state policy labor markets patterns of capital accumulation and working class struggle Illuminating these dynamics this volume develops a distinctive South African tradition of thought about the relationship between racism and capitalism The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism contributes to a burgeoning literature on the concept of racial capitalism the origins of which many commentators trace back to apartheid South Africa It pays particular attention to the crucial role of anti apartheid activists as theorists whose important insights remain relevant for scholars and activists around the globe This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

The Revolutionary Road to Me Chetan Bhatt,2024-12-03 How can the left be credible when it can't decide what a woman is How can antiracists fight for equality if they promote fictions about race If identity politics is the answer why are so many Western left organizations being damaged by it As the culture wars rage this compelling book examines why much of the Western political left has foundered because of identity politics Identity issues have mired many good organizations in intractable conflicts and deflected them from their purpose In ignoring poverty and inequality the Western left has lost its way Meanwhile powerful social movements from the past black women's gay and lesbian are reduced to corporate slogans Attuned to the needs of activists and academics this book offers intelligent explanations for how we got here It examines serious problems with antiracism transgender rights activism and the work of LGBTQ groups In showing how identities are outcomes of social and institutional forces it argues that technofinancial capitalism uses identity politics to mould new labour processes for the Western middle class while accelerating economic inequality Clearing a path through the vagaries of identity politics the book offers arguments the Western left must face amidst formidable far right and right wing authoritarianism climate emergency and severe inequalities

The Spurs Alphabet Bob Goodwin,2017 A complete record of every player to have made a first team appearance for Tottenham Hotspur Football Club

Racism Anthony Moran,2023-11-30 Racism has a long history and its devastating impacts continue to spark heated moral and political debate and give rise to social movements and widespread protest This accessible primer provides a cogent introduction to the study and confrontation of racism in the twenty first century making use of key insights from sociology and other social sciences Drawing on a range of scholars including from the radical black tradition and the Global South this book explores key issues in racism studies Putting racism into historical context Moran explains the modernity of racism and its creation through European colonialism and imperialism racial capitalism and the development of racist hierarchies stimulated by colonialist exploitation as well as pseudoscientific and Enlightenment thinking centred upon white supremacy Moran also discusses the intersectional structural institutional and systemic nature of racism and the connections between race racism and nationalism evident in the explosion of right wing nationalist populism around the world The book also investigates how the self and subjectivity are involved in racism and contribute to the reproduction of racism as a system before considering whether there are new cultural forms of racism and how we can account for Islamophobia and other racisms described as new such as colour blind racism post racial racism and racism without racists Crucially the book explores anti racist social movements such as Black Lives Matter and how racism has been challenged and discusses how accounts of race and racism can be given without reproducing the category of race as a natural organiser of people groups and identities This book will appeal to the general reader and students in the humanities and social sciences with an interest in the continuing impact of racism racial identities migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies nationalism and identity studies
