Application Forms In Waltersisulu University For Year 2016:

Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05 Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity particularly access and affordability historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism and the shape and structure of the higher education system What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities In the international literature and policy there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development especially in cities This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning Given the developmental crisis in the country universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts cities and regions But what should that role be Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level Who and what might be involved Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges

Corporate Finance and Financial Development Shame Mugova, Joseph Olorunfemi Akande, Odunayo Magret Olarewaju, 2022-07-08 This book addresses key issues in corporate finance and explores them from financial development and financial stability perspectives in emerging markets Emerging economies are susceptible to rapidly changing financial sectors and products as well as financial upheavals In this light the growing interdependence of states and capital markets and the risk of crises have an impact on the financing of firms The chapters in this book highlight how companies and policies in emerging markets are affected and deal with the current post crisis world By combining academic and industry insights the critical issues in corporate finance financial development and the preparedness of emerging markets are explored

Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

The Anticolonial Front John Munro,2017-09-21 This is a transnational history of the activist and intellectual network that connected the Black freedom struggle in the United States to liberation movements across the globe in the aftermath of World War II John Munro charts the emergence of an anticolonial front within the postwar Black liberation movement comprising organisations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People the Council on African Affairs and the American Society for African Culture and leading figures such as W E B Du Bois Claudia Jones Alphaeus Hunton George Padmore Richard Wright Esther Cooper Jackson Jack O Dell and C L R James Drawing on a diverse array of personal papers organisational records novels newspapers and scholarly literatures the book follows the fortunes of this political formation recasting the Cold War in light of decolonisation and racial capitalism and the postwar history of the United States in light of global developments

What Is Public History Globally? Paul Ashton,Alex Trapeznik,2019-01-10 Across the globe history has gone public With the rise of the internet family historians are now delving into archives continents apart Activists look into and recreate the past to promote social justice or environmental causes Dark and difficult pasts are confronted at sites of commemoration Artists draw on memory and the past to study the human condition and make meaning in the present As a result of this democratisation of history public history movements have now risen to prominence This groundbreaking edited collection takes a comprehensive look at public history throughout the world Divided into three sections Background Definitions and Issues Approaches and Methods and Sites of Public History it contextualises public history in eleven different countries explores the main research skills and methods of the discipline and illustrates public history research with a variety of global case studies What is Public History Globally provides an in depth examination of the ways in which ordinary people become active participants in historical processes and it will be an invaluable resource for advance undergraduates and postgraduates studying public history museology and heritage studies

Desegregating the Past Robyn Autry, 2017-02-07 At the Apartheid Museum in Johannesburg South Africa visitors confront the past upon arrival They must decide whether to enter the museum through a door marked whites or another marked non whites Inside along with text they encounter hanging nooses and other reminders of apartheid era atrocities In the United States museum exhibitions about racial violence and segregation are mostly confined to black history museums with national history museums sidelining such difficult material Even the Smithsonian s National Museum of African American History and Culture is dedicated not to violent histories of racial domination but to a more generalized narrative about black identity and culture The scale at which violent racial pasts have been incorporated into South African national historical narratives is lacking in the U S

Desegregating the Past considers why this is the case tracking the production and display of historical representations of racial pasts at museums in both countries and what it reveals about underlying social anxieties unsettled emotions and aspirations surrounding contemporary social fault lines around race Robyn Autry consults museum archives conducts interviews with staff and recounts the public and private battles fought over the creation and content of history museums Despite vast differences in the development of South African and U S society Autry finds a common set of ideological political economic and institutional dilemmas arising out of the selective reconstruction of the past Museums have played a major role in shaping public memory at times recognizing and at other times blurring the ongoing influence of historical crimes The narratives museums produce to engage with difficult violent histories expose present anxieties concerning identity misrecognition and ongoing conflict

The Oxford Handbook of Names and Naming Carole Hough, 2016-04-28 In this handbook scholars from around the world offer an up to date account of the state of the art in different areas of onomastics in a format that is both useful to specialists in related fields and accessible to the general reader Since Ancient Greece names have been regarded as central to the study of language and this has continued to be a major theme of both philosophical and linguistic enquiry throughout the history of Western thought The investigation of name origins is more recent as is the study of names in literature Relatively new is the study of names in society which draws on techniques from sociolinguistics and has gradually been gathering momentum over the last few decades The structure of this volume reflects the emergence of the main branches of name studies in roughly chronological order The first Part focuses on name theory and outlines key issues about the role of names in language focusing on grammar meaning and discourse Parts II and III deal with the study of place names and personal names respectively while Part IV outlines contrasting approaches to the study of names in literature with case studies from different languages and time periods Part V explores the field of socio onomastics with chapters relating to the names of people places and commercial products Part VI then examines the interdisciplinary nature of name studies before the concluding Part presents a selection of animate and inanimate referents ranging from aircraft to animals and explains the naming strategies adopted for them

¡Queremos lo nuestro! Lecciones del programa de restitución de tierras de Sudáfrica Bernadette Atuahene, Luz Helena Hanauer, 2021-06-08 En el libro Queremos lo nuestro la profesora Bernadette Atuahene desarrolla por primera vez de manera sistemática los que se han convertido en sus aportes conceptuales más relevantes en la literatura relacionada con el tema de las expropiaciones y lo referente al movimiento de derecho y sociedad en Estados Unidos Se trata de los conceptos expropiación de la dignidad y restauración de la dignidad La autora usa un amplio y detallado trabajo de campo en ciudades de Sudáfrica y logra mostrar que la expropiación de la que fueron víctimas miles de personas durante el apartheid además de despojarlas de su propiedad las privó de su dignidad Aunque múltiples regímenes constitucionales amparan las expropiaciones que llevan a cabo los Estados con el objetivo de alcanzar fines importantes y legítimos cuando estas deshumanizan o infantilizan a quienes las padecen debe otorgarse un remedio que permita restaurar la dignidad expropiada Dicho remedio de acuerdo con la profesora Atuahene debe ir más allá de la compensación económica y permitirle a la persona despojada convertirse en parte de la comunidad política con voz y agencia
