Marquis International Who's who in Optical Science and Engineering ,1985 Adolescent Psychology in Today's World Michael J. Nakkula,Andrew J. Schneider-Muñoz,2018-11-02 This groundbreaking three volume set spotlights how conditions around the world are affecting the healthy development of adolescents in their respective environments on all six continents Continually unstable or perpetually poor economic conditions globalization and rapid technological change are just three of the forces affecting a group 1 2 billion strong today a demographic poised to become our world leaders and catalysts in the not too distant future the world s adolescents Led by two editors who have been dedicated to studying adolescent development worldwide for decades this novel collection of works from contributors in more than 40 countries emphasizes how possibilities for healthy mental and physical development are affected by the difficulties youths face in their countries and how these challenges have shaped and are shaping contemporary teenage life today The set comprehensively addresses issues for adolescents across the globe such as the day to day challenges of poverty inadequate education violence or war disease reproductive matters globalization and technological challenges and more while also providing a strengths based focus in the volumes showing how and why some teenagers in each country have surmounted the challenges and forged stronger characters to better their worlds These stories document more than personal victories and their experiences matter to far more than the adolescents themselves In its State of the World s Children 2011 report UNICEF noted that the world community needs to turn its attention to adolescents in need explaining that focusing on this large and potentially powerful group makes economic sense as well as being a necessary step in working towards achieving human justice By addressing the risks challenges and strengths of teenagers as a group in countries worldwide this work serves to break the cycle of poverty violence discrimination and death for adolescents In The Name Of The Father

Rebone Makgato,2013-09-01 When unemployed Zimbabwean Promise Murewa was apprehended at a roadblock outside Polokwane City one night he did not have a drivers licence He also did not have legal papers to be in South Africa The police found that the car he was driving belonged to a Catholic priest called Father Dorota Promise was detained and later information emerged that Father Dorota was murdered on the same night So Promise became a suspect in the murder of the priest Promise s story plays out in the courtroom as the events leading to the death of Father Dorota are revealed before Judge Mulder While the state had been able to secure an attorney to defend Promise a social group of Zimbabwean expatriates believes that there is more to the crime Promise is accused of committing than meet the eye The group hires Solly ka Afrika a private investigator to find out what really took place And thus the audience gets transported back to the 60s and the 70s where they encounter the sordid life of the dead priest As the worms begin to crawl out of the woodwork the audience and the prosecution realise that Father Dorota was not a saint he was portrayed to be For the fight for Promise s survival centres around the repugnant sexual abuses that he suffered at the hands of the man he is tried for killing It is left to Judge Mulder to deliberate whether Promise is guilty of the crime or not But did Promise kill the priest or not
