Schools An Example from Kopano Matlwa's Spilt Milk Burning Ambition Elizabeth Cooper, 2022-07-19 Burning Ambition explores how young people learn to understand and influence the workings of power and justice in their society Since 2008 hundreds of secondary schools across Kenya have been targeted with fire by their students Through an in depth study of Kenyan secondary students use of arson Elizabeth Cooper asks why With insightful ethnographic analysis she shows that these young students deploy arson as moral punishment for perceived injustices and arson proves an effective tactic in their politics from below Drawing from years of research and a rich array of sources Cooper accounts for how school fires stoke a national conversation about the limited means for ordinary Kenyans and especially youth to peacefully influence the governance of their own lives Further Cooper argues that Kenyan students actions challenge the existing complacency with the globalized agenda of education for all demonstrating that submissive despondency is not the only possible response to the failed promises of education to transform material and social inequalities Mobile Learning in Schools Jocelyn Wishart, 2017-10-03 Mobile Learning in Schools explores the potential for using mobile devices in diverse school and college settings around the globe It evaluates the exciting opportunities mobile initiatives bring and shares experience of where things can go wrong in order to ensure that those embarking on new projects are fully informed Drawing on a wide range of international perspectives it unpicks knotty sociocultural issues including lack of sustainability behavioural and ethical concerns and explores successful student learning Key issues considered include mobile learning in primary schools teaching and learning with mobile devices in secondary schools opportunities inside and outside school pedagogical principles and sustainability mobile learning for initial teacher training and CPD ethical considerations behaviour matters disruption plagiarism cheating cyberbullying assessing mobile learning With annotated further reading and questions to trigger reflection and further discussion amongst readers this thought provoking text provides a detailed survey of this often controversial topic It is essential reading for all those engaged in understanding the potential for using mobile devices to support students learning The Predatory Paradox Amy Koerber, Jesse C. Starkey, Karin Ardon-Dryer, R. Glenn Cummins, Lyombe Eko, Kerk F. Kee, 2023-10-24 In today's publish or perish academic setting the institutional prizing of quantity over quality has given rise to and perpetuated the dilemma of predatory publishing Upon a close examination however the definition of predatory itself becomes slippery evading neat boxes or lists which might seek to easily define and guard against it This volume serves to foreground a nuanced representation of this multifaceted issue In such a rapidly evolving landscape this book becomes a field guide to its historical political and economic aspects presenting thoughtful interviews legal analysis and original research Case studies from both European American and non European American stakeholders emphasize the worldwide nature of the challenge faced by researchers of all levels This coauthored book is structured into both textual and supplemental materials Key takeaways discussion questions and complete classroom activities accompanying each chapter provide opportunities for engagement and real world applications of these concepts

Crucially relevant to early career researchers and the senior faculty library scholars and administrators who mentor and support them The Predatory Paradox Ethics Politics and Practices in Contemporary Scholarly Publishing offers practical recommendations for navigating the complex and often contradictory advice currently available University instructors and teaching faculty will also find the reading essential in order to properly prepare both graduate and undergraduate students for the potential pitfalls endemic to scholarly publishing

Kenyan English Evans Gesura Mecha,Martha M. Michieka,2021-10-26 Kenyan English Domains of Use Forms and Users Attitudesfocuses on the unique issues that concern language researchers in Kenya and elsewhere Edited by Martha M MichiekaandEvans Gesura Mecha the collection examines the English language forms and usages to describe the reality of Kenyan English use The contributors address questions such as What are the characteristics that distinguish Kenyan English from other national varieties How is English taught and what impact does that kind of teaching have on learner proficiency What is the place of English in mass media in politics in the churches and in multilingual homes The contributors all experienced language practitioners based in Kenya or currently conducting language related research in Kenya bring fresh perspectives to the topic at hand and give readers a glance into contexts that have not yet been addressed in this way They highlight the sociolinguistic reality of the English language in present day Kenya and raise questions that will prompt further research Postmodern Reading of Contemporary East African Fiction Andrew Nyongesa,2024-02-29 This book likens writers incessant focus on racism negative ethnicity patriarchy and social stratification in societies to a na ve physician who prescribes analgesics to treat symptoms while the underlying cause of the disease seethes in the blood In the same way persons who consistently blame their reckless conduct and shabbiness miss the point if they do not transform the actual cause of the problem the mind While most literary scholars problematise gender disparities racial and political othering oppression environment degradation education matters poor parenting and governance they tend to disregard the root cause modernism This book finds a gap in this grey area to address the authentic cause of the symptoms that most literary writers and scholars treat Pertinent modernist tenets such as bureaucracy the nation state systematisation and rationality and dualism are at the heart of racism corruption and other aforementioned symptoms It is the contention of this study that postmodernism offers a comprehensive understanding of modernism to mitigate its effects on society
