Finance - Fundamental Problems and Solutions Zhiqiang Zhang, 2013-06-13 As indicated by the title this book focuses on fundamental problems in finance a logical dilemma in valuation stock valuation methods models risk valuation and optimal capital structure It presents an innovative approach to logic and quantitative reasoning without advanced mathematics that delivers valuable results convincing solutions to these problems Readers in finance will definitely be interested in these solutions as well as the methods In fact these fundamental problems are essential in the field of finance and they have remained unsolved or partly unsolved for decades The solutions offered in this book are all sound in theory and feasible in practice and will hopefully benefit both theoretic al research and practical decision making Customary International Law and Tax Jurisdiction Céline Braumann, 2025-02-14 Customary International Law and Tax Jurisdiction C line Braumann Little attention has been paid to the pervasive effects of customary international law in contemporary issues of international taxation Customary international law influences states bargaining power in treaty negotiations serves as a gap filler for issues not regulated by treaties and informs the interpretation of tax treaties by judges and administrative agencies This study represents the most comprehensive and robust empirical analysis of customary international tax law to date It adds the formerly absent voice of a public international lawyer to the conversation Using a novel and carefully theorized methodology for the identification of customary international law concerning international tax law the author approaches the subject through an assessment of three crucial jurisdictional issues the nexus principle which specifies how a state must be connected to a subject or object to exercise tax jurisdiction the norms that govern the cross border taxation of corporate business profits and the nexus of ownership and control and by extension the role of the corporate veil in contemporary international tax law A central contribution of this book is its new data set that compares the relevant practice of 80 states providing a much larger and more geographically representative sample than any previous study The book also includes an in depth discussion on how customary limits to tax jurisdiction relate to current reform proposals spearheaded by the OECD G20 Inclusive Framework and by the UN General Assembly as well as unilateral measures such as digital services taxes It thereby furnishes new insights to the debate on their conformity with or divergence from the normative status quo of international tax law At its core this book seeks to foster intra disciplinary dialogue between international tax lawyers and public international lawyers by offering an accessible analysis of a complex interaction a feature that will benefit academics practitioners and policymakers in both fields Future Financing of the European Union Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. European Union Committee, 2005 Negotiations are underway to agree the details of the European Union budget for the period of 2007 to 2013 known as the Financial Perspective covering the newly enlarged EU of 25 member states Further enlargement is likely with Bulgaria and Romania due to join in 2007 and the possible accession of Croatia and Turkey being considered The Committee s report considers a range of issues in relation to the current budget debate

including the merits of the Commission's proposals within the framework of recent and future EU enlargement the Common Agricultural Policy Structural and Cohesion Funds the Lisbon Agenda other spending categories the functioning of the Own Resources and a EU tax UK abatement and the Commission's proposal for a Generalised Corrective Mechanism Conclusions reached include support for the UK Government's insistence that the UK rebate is non negotiable given the inadequate reforms of the CAP however if real reform of the budget was offered then the UK Government should be prepared to negotiate Structural funds should be focused on the 10 new member states as well as the two applicant countries of Romania and Bulgaria with the phasing out of EU regional development funds for all old member states with the exception of Greece and Portugal

Indonesia International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept,2018-02-06 This 2017 Article IV Consultation highlights that the Indonesian economy has continued to perform well The economic outlook is positive Real GDP growth is projected at 5.1 percent in 2017 rising gradually to 5.6 percent over the medium term led by robust domestic demand Inflation is projected to remain about 3.5 percent within the official target range owing to stable food and administered prices and well anchored inflation expectations The current account deficit is expected to remain contained at near 2 percent of GDP owing to firm commodity prices and robust exports Risks to the outlook remain tilted to the downside including spikes in global financial volatility uncertainty around the United States economic policies lower growth in China and geopolitical tensions

Belgium International Monetary Fund. European Dept.,2016-03-07 This paper discusses economic development and policies of Belgium The new government has taken important steps to support job creation and address the cost of aging notably through wage moderation pension reform and a tax shift But growth prospects remain mediocre public debt very high and the labor market severely fragmented The central task is to achieve a lasting reduction in public debt while nurturing the recovery and social cohesion The government's goal of achieving structural fiscal balance by 2018 is laudable but ambitious with almost two percent of GDP of measures yet to be identified Tapping Belgium's full labor market potential requires a comprehensive and inclusive jobs strategy

Indonesia: 2022 Article IV Consultation-Press Release; Staff Report; Staff Statement; and Statement by the Executive Director for Indonesia International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept,2022-03-22 As elsewhere the COVID 19 pandemic has led to tragic loss of life and triggered a major economic downturn in Indonesia The authorities have responded with a bold and comprehensive policy package that has successfully maintained economic and financial stability With the recovery underway they have begun to withdraw the exceptional support measures Nevertheless the pandemic has caused scarring and reinforced the need to tackle longstanding structural challenges
