Self-Build Homes Michaela Benson, Iqbal Hamiduddin, 2017-11-27 Self Build Homes connects the burgeoning interdisciplinary research on self build with commentary from leading international figures in the self build and wider housing sector Through their focus on community dwelling home and identity the chapters explore the various meanings of self build housing encouraging new directions for discussions about self building and calling for the recognition of the social dimensions of this process from consideration of the structures policies and practices that shape it through to the lived experience of individuals and households Divided into four parts Discourse Rationale Meaning Values Lifestyles Imaginaries Community and Identity and Perspectives from Practice the volume comes at a time of renewed focus from policy managers and practitioners as well as prospective builders themselves on self build as a means for producing homes that are more stylised affordable and appropriate for the specific needs of households It responds to recent advances in housing and planning policy while also bringing this into conversation with interdisciplinary perspectives from across the social sciences on housing home and homemaking In this way the book seeks to update understandings of self build and to account for housing as a distinctly social process The Law Magazine and Review ,1876 Torkildsen's Sport and Leisure Management Rob Wilson,Chris Platts,Daniel Plumley,2022-11-01 For nearly 40 years Torkildsen s Sport and Leisure Management has been the most comprehensive and engaging introduction to sport and leisure management available to students at all levels Now in its seventh edition it is still the only textbook that covers all the key topics taught within contemporary sport and leisure management courses This new edition includes expanded coverage of the practical managerial skills that students must develop if aiming for a career in the sport and leisure industry from planning and managing people to marketing entrepreneurship and the law It includes four completely new chapters on the global sport and leisure economy historical development cross sector collaboration and management consultancy reflecting important developments in contemporary sport and leisure This edition retains the hallmark strengths of previous editions including in depth discussion of the social and cultural context of sport and leisure full analysis of the public private and voluntary sectors and a review of key products and services Richly illustrated throughout with up to date evidence data case studies and international examples each chapter also contains a range of useful pedagogical features such as discussion questions practical tasks and structured guides to further reading and resources This is an important resource for students working in fields such as sport management sport business sport development leisure management and events management Dedicated online resources offer additional teaching and learning material for students and lecturers Collective Learning for Transformational Change Valerie A. Brown,Judith A. Lambert,2013 The drive for change has informed human endeavour throughout history From fields to factories to offices people have always asked how to make things better This innovative book offers a step by step guide for recognising the need for transformational change and kick starting a course of implementation that leads to the creation of a productive just and sustainable future for the given community Drawing on over 300 cases of transformational change planned for and supported through the process of collective learning the book shows how a collective learning model based on open learning among diverse interests can improve communication and achieve lasting system change Part one of the book outlines the theory and practice of collective learning drawing on the experiential learning cycle developed by David Kolb The practice follows the rules of open space learning dialogue and valuing diversity and is flexible allowing adaptation to different situations Case studies in Part two provide examples of collective learning leading to transformational change in a wide range of contexts from cities to councils to organisations Part three offers thirty three activities on which the programme designers can draw in the course of guiding transformational change from team building to community development monitoring evaluation and cross cultural learning This guidebook differs from the traditional management of change Not only does the process begin with sharing ideals only later proceeding to implementation but it also actively harnesses the full set of interests in planning direct action seeking constructive collaboration not consensus This groundbreaking guidebook is designed to be fun accessible and engaging for both students and professionals in the fields of administration and governance Breaking Down Barriers Pat Langdon, Jonathan Lazar, Ann Heylighen, Hua Dong, 2018-02-19 The Cambridge Workshops on Universal Access and Assistive Technology CWUAAT is one of the few gatherings where people interested in inclusive design across different fields including designers computer scientists engineers architects ergonomists ethnographers policymakers and user communities meet discuss and collaborate CWUAAT has also become an international workshop representing diverse cultures including Portugal Germany Trinidad and Tobago Canada Australia China Norway USA Belgium UK and many more The workshop has five main themes based on barriers identified in the developing field of design for inclusion I Breaking Down Barriers between Disciplines II Breaking Down Barriers between Users Designers and Developers III Removing Barriers to Usability Accessibility and Inclusive Design IV Breaking Down Barriers between People with Impairments and Those without V Breaking Down Barriers between Research and Policy making In the context of developing demographic changes leading to greater numbers of older people and people living with impairments the general field of inclusive design research strives to relate the capabilities of the population to the design of products services and spaces CWUAAT has always had a successful multidisciplinary focus but if genuine transdisciplinary fields are to evolve from this the final barriers to integrated research must be identified and characterised Only then will benefits be realised in an inclusive society Barriers do not arise from impairments themselves but instead are erected by humans who often have not considered a greater variation in sensory cognitive and physical user capabilities Barriers are not only technical or architectural but they also exist between different communities of professionals Our continual goal with the CWUAAT workshop series is to break down barriers in technical physical and architectural design as well as barriers between different professional communities House Furnishing Review ,1927
