An Untamed State English Edition:

An Untamed State Roxane Gay, 2014-05-06 A Haitian American woman survives a brutal kidnapping in this commanding debut novel from the New York Times bestselling author of Bad Feminist The New Yorker Author and essayist Roxane Gay is celebrated for her incisive commentary on identity and culture as well as for her bestselling nonfiction and short story collections Now with An Untamed State she delivers a breathtaking debut novel The Guardian UK of wealth in the face of crushing poverty and the lawless anger produced by corrupt governments Mireille Duval Jameson is living a fairy tale The strong willed youngest daughter of one of Haiti's richest sons she lives in the United States with her adoring husband and infant son returning every summer to stay on her father's Port au Prince estate But the fairy tale ends when Mireille is kidnapped in broad daylight by a gang of heavily armed men just outside the estate walls Held captive by a man who calls himself The Commander Mireille waits for her father to pay her ransom As her father's standoff with the kidnappers stretches out into days Mireille must endure the torments of a man who despises everything she represents An Untamed State is a breathless artful disturbing and original story of a willful woman attempting to find her way back to the person she once was and of how redemption is found in the most unexpected of places Meg Wolitzer author of The Interestings

Teaching, Reading, and Theorizing Caribbean Texts Emily O'Dell, Jeanne Jégousso, 2020-08-17 Teaching Reading and Theorizing Caribbean Texts explores alternative approaches to Caribbean texts from transnational and multilingual perspectives The authors query what new systems and criteria can be implemented to rethink and remodel our theoretical and pedagogical corpus and alter the lenses through which we study Caribbean texts Pulling from the Caribbean's global diaspora the authors examine writers such as Roxane Gay Esmeralda Santiago Wilson Harris and Gloria Anzaldá in order to resituate the place of Caribbean texts in the classroom Each chapter argues for a reunification of Caribbean literature studies rather than studying this body of text only in terms of a certain aspect of its history or culture the authors necessitate the importance of analyzing these works from a pan Caribbean perspective This collection discusses the ideas of transcending individual disciplines and specialties to create global theories overcoming pedagogical challenges when bringing Caribbean texts into the classroom and re-reading texts with the purpose of discovering new symbols themes and meanings

The Imperial Dictionary of the English Language John Ogilvie, 1883 Making Sense of Nature Noel Castree, 2013-08-15 We listen to a cacophony of voices instructing us how to think and feel about nature including our own bodies The news media wildlife documentaries science magazines and environmental NGOs are among those clamouring for our attention But are we empowered by all this knowledge or is our dependence on various communities allowing our thoughts sentiments and activities to be unduly governed by others Making Sense of Nature shows that what we call nature is made sense of for us in ways that make it central to social order social change and social dissent By utilising insights and extended examples from anthropology cultural studies human geography philosophy politics sociology science studies this interdisciplinary text asks whether we can better make sense of nature for ourselves and thus participate more meaningfully in momentous decisions about the future of life human and non human on the planet This book shows how nature can be made sense of without presuming its naturalness The challenge is not so much to rid ourselves of the idea of nature and its collateral concepts such as genes but instead we need to be more alert to how why and with what effects ideas about nature get fashioned and deployed in specific situations Among other things the book deals with science and scientists the mass media and journalists ecotourism literature and cinema environmentalists advertising and big business This innovative text contains numerous case studies and examples from daily life to put theory and subject matter into context as well as study tasks a glossary and suggested further reading The case studies cover a range of topics range from forestry in Canada and Guinea to bestiality in Washington State to how human genetics is reported in Western newspapers to participatory science experiments in the UK Making Sense of Nature will empower readers from a wide range of fields across the social sciences humanities and physical sciences
