Lamari, 2010-09-22 Euripides Phoenissae bears one of the richest tragic plots multiple narrative levels are interwoven by means of various anachronies focalizers offer different and often challenging points of view while a complex mythical matrix is deftly employed as the backdrop against which the exploration of the mechanics of tragic narrative takes place After providing a critical perspective on the ongoing scholarly dialogue regarding narratology and drama this book uses the former as a working tool for the study and interpretation of the latter The

Phoenissae is approached as a coherent narrative unit and issues like the use of myth narrators intertext time and space are discussed in detail It is within these contexts that the play is seen as a Theban mythical thesaurus both exploring previous mythical ramifications and making new additions The result is rewarding Euripides constructs a handbook of the Theban saga that was informative for those mythically untrained fascinating for those theatrically demanding but also dexterously open upon each one's reception

Ethical and Social Issues in Professional Education Celeste M. Brody, James Wallace, 1994-07-01 This book reflects and extends the great debates that schools colleges and universities are having in response to the profound moral conflicts and personal questions facing professionals today What should we teach our students What values should we communicate and nurture What should be the role of the traditional liberal arts in professional education How should schools and colleges respond to the demands of women and minorities for a more inclusive curriculum The authors explore ongoing theoretical and practical considerations of graduate professional education through the ethical and social issues facing professionals in public service Administrators teachers counselors nurses or lawyers are recognizing that they face similar questions about their personal and professional lives Is it possible to sustain a set of fully human values as a practicing professional As a member of a public organization how does one deal with dilemmas involving conflicting priorities and ambiguous goals The authors' responses to these questions are presented as themes describing connections between curriculum and pedagogy They have designed an approach to ethical and social questions respectful of the contributions of adult learners and the need to provide diverse perspectives

Modernism and Mourning Patricia Rae, 2007 The essays in Modernism and Mourning examine the work of mourning in modernist literature or more precisely its propensity for resisting this work Drawing from recent developments in the theory and cultural history of mourning its contributors explore the various ways in which modernist writers repudiate Freud's famous injunction to mourners to work through their grief endorsing instead a resistant or melancholic mourning that shapes both their themes and their radical experiments with form The emerging picture of the pervasive influence of melancholic mourning in modernist literature casts new light on longstanding critical arguments especially those about the politics of modernism It also makes clear the pertinence of this literature to the present day in which the catastrophic losses of 9/11 of retaliatory war of racially motivated genocide of the AIDS epidemic have made the work of mourning a subject of widespread interest and debate Patricia Rae is Head of the Department of English at Queen's University

Cultures of Citizenship in the Twenty-First Century Vanessa Evans, Mita Banerjee, 2023-12-04 In the early twenty-first century the concept of citizenship is more contested than ever As refugees set out to cross the Mediterranean European nation states refer to cultural integrity and immigrant inassimilability revealing citizenship to be much more than a legal concept The contributors to this volume take an interdisciplinary approach to considering how cultures of citizenship are being envisioned and interrogated in literary and cultural contexts Through this framework they attend to the tension between the citizen and its spectral others a
