Hatchet

By Gary Paulsen

Directions: Before reading Hatchet, carefully read each of the statements below. If you agree with the statement, write a Y for yes in the Before column. If you disagree with the statement, write an N for no in the Before column.

	Before	After
There are some secrets you must share.
It's always best to keep calm and think positively during a crisis.
Feeling sorry for yourself can help you make better choices.
You only learn from the things you do well.
Learning how to survive in your surrounding environment can mean the difference between life and death.
You must conquer nature in order to survive in it.
Do not say anything if your parents make you angry.
Learning about yourself can change your outlook on life.

Once you have finished Hatchet reread each statement. Again, write a Y for yes in the After column if you agree with the statement. Write an N for no in the After column if you disagree with the statement.
