Name: _____

Date: _____ < ____ >

Directions: Read each statement carefully. In the space provided, mark an "A" if you agree with the statement or mark a "D" if you disagree with the statement. If you are torn, you may mark A/D, but you may only use this three times. On the back of this form, choose three of the statements and explain why you agree or disagree. You must do this in complete sentences and you must restate the question. Be specific as to what or what you are talking about ALL the time. For example, if you agree for number 1, you would start your response by saying, "I agree that life is harder for any child in a family who is not the oldest child BECAUSE (and then write your reasoning here)." Please include examples from your life or other's lives to back up your response.

- _____ 1. Life is harder for any child in a family who is not the oldest child.
- _____ 2. Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.
- _____ 3. It is better to confront someone about an issue instead of avoiding the issue and the person.
- _____ 4. Parents should be very involved in their children's lives.
- _____ 5. Friends should always stick up for each other, no matter what the situation.
- _____ 6. Economic differences between friends cause problems; people from different economic (money/financial) backgrounds cannot be friends.
- _____ 7. Popular people can get away with more than less popular people.
- _____ 8. Powers should be faced and overcome instead of always lived with.
- _____ 9. It is important to feel needed and accepted within families and school environments.
- _____ 10. Honesty is essential for maintaining good relationships.
