Gerhart,2023-04-28 This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC of the late 1940s to the South African Student Organization SASO and the Black Consciousness Movement of the 1970s Perspective Clarifies some of the main issues that have divided the black leadership and rescues the work of some pioneering nationalist theorists It s an absorbing piece of history New York Times Informative and well researched She ably explores the nuances of the two main movements until 1960 and explains why blacks were so receptive to black consciousness in the late Sixties New York Review This book better than any I have seen provides an understanding of the politics and ideology of orthodox African nationalism or Black Power in South Africa since World War II from the Youth League of the African Student National Congress ANC Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the British Museum Library ,1965 The Kaiser Index to Black Resources, 1948-1986: T-Z ,1992 Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1965 The Homeschooling Father, How and Why I got started Salatiso,2023-11-18 A courageously and brilliantly written tell it like it is summation of the challenges endemic in education in Mzansi and elsewhere frankly and the knock on effect that permeates society and employment With its entrenched culture of entitlement patronage cadre deployment and good old fashioned construction mafia shakedowns the narrative is both gripping and enlightening More refreshing still is the hope offered by the author in the way of solutions and a can do spirit not just another list of only problems This author and writing is one of South Africa s best kept secrets as far as I am concerned Among other things it is inspiring me to seriously contemplate homeschooling my children though it covers so much more ground than that alone Do yourself a favour and read this work Share it widely and often Kudos Salatiso Thanks for the inspiration James Jimmy Duly MSc Adult Ed World s Most Reality based Operations Management at University of KwaZulu Natal
