India and Network-Centric Warfare Kartik Bommakanti, 2025-11-14 This book analyses India's Network Centric Warfare (NCW) capabilities and how well they are integrated into the Indian armed forces especially the Indian Army. It explores primarily the technological and to a more limited extent the doctrinal and organisational issues that are related to NCW. It assesses how three technologies that are central to NCW: cyber, electronic warfare and space are being developed and integrated by the Indian armed services. In addition, it also analyses partially how the Indian armed services acquire and integrate Artificial Intelligence and Quantum Technology in specific areas and also explores the need for the Indian armed services to acquire Kinetic Energy Weapons (KEWs) and Directed Energy Weapons (DEWs) especially microwave and laser weapons. A part of the International Politics in the Age of Disruption series, the book will be indispensable for students and researchers of military studies, security studies, cyber warfare, political studies, international relations, security studies and South Asian studies.

Proceedings of the 15th International Marine Design Conference Austin A. Kana, 2024-08-22 The 15th International Marine Design Conference (IMDC) 2024 was organized by the Department of Maritime and Transport Technology, Delft University of Technology and was hosted by the Netherlands Defence Materiel Organisation at the Marine Etablissement Amsterdam MEA. The aim of the IMDC is to promote all aspects of marine design as an engineering discipline. The focus of IMDC 2024 is on the key design challenges and opportunities in the maritime field with special emphasis on the following themes: Ship design methodology issues such as design spiral, systems engineering, set-based design, design optimisation, concurrent design, modular design, configuration-based design or fuzzy design aspects. Novel marine design concepts such as hull form design, transport ships, service vessels, naval vessels, yachts and cruise ships or specialized and complex vessels. Offshore design methodology such as applications to offshore wind turbines, semi-submersibles, floating fish farms or floating cities. Influence of energy transition on maritime design including both zero emission and high power and energy systems. Influence of unmanned and autonomous transition on maritime design. Influence of digital transition on maritime design such as digital shadows and twins, model-based systems engineering, AI, ML and big data. Influence of regulations on maritime design. Maritime design education.

Nanoweapons Louis A. Del Monte, 2017 Nanoweapons just might render humanity extinct in the near future, a notion that is frightening and shocking but potentially true In Nanoweapons Louis A Del Monte describes the most deadly generation of military weapons the world has ever encountered With dimensions one thousandth the diameter of a single strand of human hair this technology threatens to eradicate humanity as it incites world governments to compete in the deadliest arms race ever In his insightful and prescient account of this risky and radical technology Del Monte predicts that nanoweapons will dominate the battlefield of the future and will help determine the superpowers of the twenty first century He traces the emergence of nanotechnology discusses the current development of nanoweapons such as the mini nuke which weighs five pounds and carries the power of one hundred tons of TNT and offers concrete recommendations founded in historical precedent for controlling their proliferation and avoiding human annihilation Most critically Nanoweapons addresses the question Will it be possible to develop deploy and use nanoweapons in warfare without rendering humanity extinct

Sustainable Regeneration of Former Military Sites Samer Bagaeen,Celia Clark,2016-06-10 Sustainable Regeneration of Former Military Sites is the first book to analyze a profound land use change happening all over the world the search for sustainable futures for property formerly dedicated to national defense now becoming redundant disposed of and redeveloped The new military necessity for rapid flexible response requires quite different physical resources from the massive fixed positions of the Cold War with huge tracts of land and buildings looking for new uses The transition from military to civilian life for these complex contaminated isolated heritage laden and often contested sites in locations ranging from urban to remote is far from easy There is very little systematic analysis of what follows base closures leaving communities governments developers and planners experimenting with untested land use configurations partnership structures and financing strategies With twelve case studies drawn from different countries many written by those involved Sustainable Regeneration of Former Military Sites enables the diverse stakeholders in these projects to discover unique opportunities for reuse and learn from others experiences of successful regeneration

Maritime Interception and the Law of Naval Operations Martin Fink,2018-08-29 This book considers the international law applicable to maritime interception operations MIO conducted on the high seas and within the context of international peace and security MIO being a much used naval operational activity employed within the entire spectrum of today s conflicts The book deals with the legal aspects flowing from the boarding and searching of foreign flagged vessels and the possible arrest of persons and confiscation of goods and analyses the applicable law with regard to maritime interception operations through the legal bases and legal regimes Considered are MIO undertaken based on for instance the UN Collective Security System maritime embargo operations self defence and ad hoc consent and within the context of legal regimes various views are provided on the right of visit the use of force and the use of detention This volume which has contemporary naval operations as its central focus and structures the analysis as a sub discipline of the international law of military operations will be of great interest both to academics practitioners and policy advisors working or involved in the field of military and naval operations and to those professionals wanting to learn more about the international law of military operations naval operations and the law of the sea and maritime security Martin Fink is a naval and legal officer in the Royal Netherlands Navy Naval Constabulary Operations and Fisheries Governance Sean A. G. Andrews, 2024-05-07 This book offers an analysis of naval constabulary operations in particular Australian fisheries patrols and challenges the widely accepted Anglo American school of maritime thought In the Indo Pacific fisheries and the activities of fishing boats are of increasing strategic importance in Australia s region Australia s Four Oceans Issues of overfishing population growth and climate change are placing growing pressure on fish as a resource and in doing so are making fisheries more significant and significant on a strategic as opposed to simply an economic or environmental level When combined with the growing use of fishing vessels as para naval forces it is clear that the activities of fishing vessels whether fishing or not fishing are matters of considerable strategic relevance This book illuminates contemporary seapower challenges explains and defines maritime security and examines and refines existing theory to advance a set of new or refined concepts to help frame the on water activities of constabulary operations reducing the possibility of on water miscalculation between states This book will be of much interest to students and scholars of naval studies and sea power maritime strategy maritime security and International Relations The Contemporary German Navy as an Instrument of Foreign Policy Moritz Brake, 2024-12-06 Since the Cold War and beyond the Zeitenwende Germany has increasingly come to rely on its navy as an instrument of foreign policy The German Navy supports comprehensive maritime security and ocean governance and its missions not only reflect its own evolution but also change within Germany This is a marked shift for the continental power Germany and forms a substantial component of its much broader maritime turn in the 21st century Changes in strategic context new security challenges and Germany s evolving international role after reunification have altered the perception of the navy s utility Its share in the Bundeswehr s personnel has grown and the navy has seen proportionally higher investment or relatively less cuts owing to the post Cold War peace dividend than either army or airforce The author shows that the navy has markedly changed and become increasingly useful for Germany s foreign policy something which in the stormy seas of geopolitical escalation of the Zeitenwende has already paid dividends Systems Engineering in Context Stephen Adams, Peter A. Beling, James H. Lambert, William T. Scherer, Cody H. Fleming, 2019-06-21 This volume chronicles the 16th Annual Conference on System Engineering Research CSER held on May 8 9 2018 at the University of Virginia Charlottesville Virginia USA The CSER offers researchers in academia industry and government a common forum to present discuss and influence systems engineering research It provides access to forward looking research
