ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017
Experimental Life Writing Today Vanessa Guignery, Wojciech Drag, 2025-10-02 This comprehensive volume offers compelling critical essays surveying the myriad forms of innovation in contemporary Anglophone life writing. Experimental Life Writing Today provides a historical and critical context for examining avant garde tendencies in biography and autobiography and outlines the poetics of experimental life writing. The volume is divided into two parts. The first is devoted to a selection of experimental genres of life writing: autofiction, biofiction, paramemoir, autotheory, graphic memoir, photo memoir, eco memoir, and the lyric essay. Part Two includes chapters concerned with the following themes: concepts and devices set in the context of experimental life writing; illness, disability, mourning, relationality, place, catalogue, narration, and fragmentation. To ensure clarity and consistency, each chapter follows the same structure: a theoretical discussion of a given notion comprising a brief discussion of its various aspects and examples, followed by a close reading of a chosen text. Case studies are devoted to significant contemporary works by authors such as Hazel V. Carby, J. M. Coetzee, Anne Garréta, Karen Green, Vona Groarke, Han Kang, Mary Karr, Deborah Levy, Hilary Mantel, Maggie Nelson, Ruth Ozeki, Mark Tredinnick, Una D. J. Waldie, and Wim Wenders. The volume is dedicated to exploring innovative forms of and in contemporary Anglophone life writing and it makes an important contribution to a rich and burgeoning field of interdisciplinary practice and research.

This book addresses topics including challenges to spatial urban development, how spatial planning is delivered, how different urbanisation variables influence the development of different forms of urban systems and settlements in Africa, how city authorities could use old and new methods of land administration to produce sustainable urban spaces in Africa, and the role of local activism in causing important changes in the built environment. Case, 2022-12-06 The complex relationship between violence and nonviolence in social movements We are living in a time of uprisings that routinely involve physical confrontation burning vehicles barricades vandalism and scuffles between protesters and authorities Yet the Left has struggled to incorporate rioting into theories of change remaining stuck in recurring debates over violence and nonviolence Civil resistance studies have popularized the term strategic nonviolence spreading the notion that violence is wholly counter productive Street Rebellion scrutinizes recent research and develops a broad and grounded portrait of the relationship between strategic nonviolence and rioting in the struggle for liberation Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich, Adri Sauerma, 2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country's people. More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity. This book offers a unique perspective by providing in-depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa. It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy. Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity. A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct. The book also examines the influence of the respondents' race gender and supervisory status on police integrity. Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations.
