

DESIGNING FOR ALL AGES & ABILITIES

Every design must meet the needs of a diverse range of potential bike riders. Across North America, however, many existing bike facility designs provide enough comfort for only the healthiest people living and exclude many who might otherwise ride.

IN ALL AGES & ABILITIES people deserve to use their local communities and provide ideas for accessible and safe transportation. A good design is one that takes into account the needs of all people, including those with disabilities, and provides a safe and comfortable environment for all. A good design is one that takes into account the needs of all people, including those with disabilities, and provides a safe and comfortable environment for all.

OUR VISION

Cities where safe, sustainable, and equitable transportation systems connect communities to the resources they need to thrive

The third edition of the Urban Bikeway Design Guide revised (existing) Guidelines to help cities and states create safe, sustainable, and equitable transportation systems.
