Figure 6. Comparison of the results from the two models. The figure shows the predicted values of the dependent variable for each level of the independent variables. The y-axis represents the predicted value of the dependent variable, ranging from 0 to 100. The x-axis represents the levels of the independent variables, categorized by "Low" and "High". The legend indicates the color coding for the different models: Blue for Model 1, Green for Model 2, Red for Model 3, Yellow for Model 4, and Grey for Model 5. The bars are grouped by the level of the independent variables, showing the predicted values for each model at each level.
