An Unsuitable Mother:

An Unsuitable Mother Sheelagh Kelly, 2008-12-22 A memorable saga from one of the best loved writers of the genre Sheelagh Kelly gives us the pain and determination of the people of York during the Second World War Memoirs of an Unfit Mother Anne Robinson, 2017-06-29 Anne Robinson's mother was a cross between Robert Maxwell and Mother Teresa When Anne became a young reporter in Fleet Street her mother a wealthy market trader bought her a mink coat and told her to have a facial once a month But Anne Robinson's early success almost ended in her destruction A doomed marriage was followed by a secret custody battle for her two year old daughter Emma Is it true her husband's barrister demanded in court you once said you'd rather cover the Vietnam War than vacuum the sitting room A shocking funny poignant and honest account of three generations of women Anne's formidable mother Anne and her daughter Emma Memoirs of an Unfit Mother tells of Anne's downfall the shame of the years after the custody battle and her subsequent alcoholism And the triumph of returning to take a second go at life And making it work Writing Back Through Our Mothers Tegan Zimmerman, 2014 For the first time in the literary tradition the contemporary woman's historical novel post 1970 is surveyed from a transnational feminist perspective Analyzing the maternal the genre's central theme reveals that historical fiction is a transnational feminist means for challenging historical erasures silences normative sexuality political exclusion and divisions of labor Series Contributions to Transnational Feminism Vol 5 Maternity Homes for Unmarried Mothers Maud Morlock, Miss Hilary Campbell, 1946 The Mother's Manual of Children's Diseases Charles West, 1885 The Mother's magazine, ed. by Mrs. A.G. Whittelsey. [Continued as] The Mother's magazine and family preacher Mother's magazine and family preacher, 1842 Labor of Innocents Karin Lorene Zipf, 2005-05-01 On an autumn day in 1866 Wiley Ambrose and Hepsey Saunders two former slaves who lived as husband and wife received a knock at their door Three men from a plantation in Brunswick County North Carolina presented court ordered apprenticeship papers authorizing the immediate seizure of the couple's daughters fifteen year old Harriet and thirteen year old Eliza After a brief stay in jail with other children the sisters were sent to work as plantation servants and field hands until age twenty one With that startling example Karin L Zipf begins Labor of Innocents the first comprehensive exploration of forced apprenticeship in North Carolina Zipf refuses to nostalgically view apprenticeship as a benign form of vocational training for children and instead presents irrefutable evidence that the institution existed as a means to control the composition and character of families to provide alternate sources of cheap labor and to ensure a white patriarchal social order Codified by law involuntary apprenticeship allowed courts not only to define who was an unacceptable parent but also to indenture their children Disproportionately affected were the poor Zipf details the continual fluidity of the institution from its colonial origins to its twentieth century demise Over two hundred years the definition of an unfit head of household variously included black men any woman and widowed or unmarried white women depending upon the current social and political agenda of authorities

Parents of both races and sexes challenged the laws vigorously and repeatedly to no effect until progressive reforms ended apprenticeship in 1919 with passage of the Child Welfare Act An impressive blend of legal social and labor history Labor of Innocents illuminates past concepts of family and the realities families endured The Mother's Assistant, and Child's Friend, 1846 Office Administration for Organizations Supervising the Health of Mothers, Infants, and Children of Preschool Age Estelle Belle Hunter, Helen Rankin Jeter, Helen Russell Wright, Lydia Jane Roberts, United States. Children's Bureau, Ruth Bloodgood, 1922 Backlash Against Welfare Mothers Ellen Reese, 2005-07-29 Ellen Reese considers the politics of welfare in the U S from the 1940s to the present offering a historical perspective on the current debates over welfare mothers showing how racism has played a large part in the formulation of popular conceptions regarding welfare

Teaching Anglophone South Asian Women Writers Deepika Bahri, Filippo Menozzi, 2021-06-15 Offers pedagogical techniques for teaching South Asian women s writing in English including consideration of colonization and imperialism Partition war migration and diaspora tradition and modernity global capitalism climate change gender and sexuality and intersectionality Gives syllabus suggestions for undergraduate and graduate courses in postcolonial literature world literature and women s studies Norwegian Women's Writing 1850-1990 Janet Garton, 2000-12-01 Volume One in a new series this book covers Norwegian women s writing over the last 150 years setting literary developments against the background of the emergence and growth of the women s movement in Norway The work is divided chronologically into three sections the period up to 1913 when the universal suffrage was granted the period from 1913 to 1960 a time of stagnation in the women s movement with little involvement in contemporary political social and economic debates and the period from 1960 to the present day which has seen an increasing participation of women in public life Chapters on individual authors concentrate on the images of the women portrayed and investigate the conflicts behind the text the tensions between the authors and their work and the ambivalent feelings of women authors towards the act of writing The book should be of interest to all those concerned with women s writing and with Scandanavian literature and culture The series provides a survey country by country of women s writing from the beginnings of the major struggle for emancipation up to the present day While the main emphasis is on literature the social political and cultural development of each country provides a context for understanding the position and preoccupations of women writers Modern critical currents are also taken into account in relating feminist criticism to recent critical theory Forthcoming volumes in this series include Women s Writing in Italy 1870 1990 and Swedish Women s Writing 1850 1990 The Northwestern Reporter, 1899 California Advance Sheet February 2012 Fastcase, Coercive Control in Children's and Mothers' Lives Emma Katz, 2022 Coercive control is a severe form of domestic violence experienced by millions of children worldwide It involves a perpetrator using a range of tactics to intimidate humiliate degrade exploit isolate and control a partner or family member Some coercive control perpetrators use violence others do not Drawing on interviews with children and mothers who have experienced coercive control based domestic violence this groundbreaking book sheds light on the impacts of coercive control on children how it is perpetrated who must be held accountable for those impacts and how resistance by children and mothers occurs Resistance happens in everyday life not just in response to incidents of violence Breaking free from coercive control is not a one off event but a sustained battle for safety and recovery in which child and adult survivors need supports and professional interventions that work Written accessibly for students researchers practitioners survivors of domestic violence and anyone with a general interest in the topic the book provides a child centered perspective to revolutionize our understanding of how children are affected by coercive control based domestic violence

Mothers Who Kill Charlotte Beyer, 2022-01-10 This compelling and unique collection of critical and creative work assesses for the first time cultural literary legal and historical representations and narratives about mothers who kill and filicide The idea of a mother killing her child to many presents the greatest taboo and the most disturbing and distressing aspect of maternal experience In Toni Morrison's 1987 novel Beloved escaped slave mother Sethe addresses her daughter Beloved whom she murdered out of desperation in order to avoid her returning to a life of slavery and sexual abuse Sethe reflects I'll explain to her even though I don't have to Why I did it How if I hadn't killed her she would have died and that is something I could not bear to happen to her When I explain it she'll understand This book goes beyond Morrison's widely known literary portrayal in order to investigate a range of other less known but no less challenging examinations of maternal filicide Have mothers who kill inevitably been portrayed as monsters in cultural representations Or are there certain contexts that may urge us to reevaluate maternal behavior And how might we counter the misogynist narratives surrounding maternal filicide which have governed literary and historical accounts and affected legal discourses This wide ranging and innovative volume examines the complex issues of infanticide and mothers who kill from a broad interdisciplinary perspective in order to counter the misogynist cultural narratives that underpin prevailing stereotypes of mothers The book includes creative work essays on crime fiction literature from across a range of historical periods multicultural and Global South perspectives legal and historical accounts and more Making an invaluable contribution to motherhood studies and gender criticism this book offers a rich insight into current and cutting edge research into this most troubling area of maternal representation

Handbook on Women in Business and Management D. Bilimoria, 2007 This very impressive Handbook takes established research topics about women in management and treats them in fresh and novel ways The chapters are intellectually interesting sound and provocative and meet the editors aspiration to stimulate high quality research on women s experiences in work organizations I recommend it highly Jean M Bartunek Boston College US This comprehensive Handbook presents specially commissioned original essays on the societal roles and contexts facing women in business and management the specific career and work life issues of women in these fields organizational processes affecting women and the role of women as leaders in business and management The essays shed light on the extant structures and practices of society and organizations that constrain or facilitate women s representation treatment quality of life and success Despite decades of ongoing inquiry and increasing interest research on women in business and management remains a specialized field without mainstream acceptance within business and management disciplines The Handbook presents the current state of knowledge about women in business and management and specifies the directions for future research likely to be most constructive for advancing the representation treatment quality of life and success of women who work in these fields It provides the foundations for improved societal and organizational structures policies and relational practices affecting all in business and management Thus by enhancing the knowledge base that improves the work and life situations of women it suggests ways to elevate the societal and organizational systems for all The Handbook will be an essential reference source for recent advances in research and theory informing both scholars of organization studies gender diversity and feminism human resource specialists and educators of and consultants to business organizations and management Mother's Assistant and Young Lady's Friend ,1846
