

A top-down view of a gardening workspace. The background is a dark, rich soil. Scattered around are various green plants in different stages of growth, some in small pots and others in larger containers. A hand trowel with a wooden handle and a metal head is positioned horizontally in the upper center. Another similar tool is in the lower center. A small, dark, rectangular container holds soil. A coiled rope is visible on the left side. The overall scene is well-lit, highlighting the textures of the soil and the vibrant green of the plants.

Amharic, a Semitic language of Ethiopia, came to function as the second written language of the Ethiopian Empire in the course of the 19th century. Samples of Amharic texts prior to this period are scanty and worthy of special study. The poems in question can be dated to the period end of the 17th beginning of the 18th century.
