Indigenous Empowerment through Co-management Graham White,2020-02-01 Co management boards established under comprehensive land claims agreements with Indigenous peoples have become key players in land use planning wildlife management and environmental regulation across Canada s North This book provides a detailed account of the operation and effectiveness of these new forms of federalism in order to address a central question Have co management boards been successful in ensuring substantial Indigenous involvement in policies affecting the land and wildlife in their traditional territories Graham White tackles this question drawing on decades of research and writing about the politics of Northern Canada He begins with an overview of the boards examining their legal foundations structure and membership decision making processes and independence from government He then presents case studies of several important boards While White identifies constraints on the role Northern Indigenous peoples play in board processes he finds that overall they exercise extensive decision making influence These findings are provocative and offer valuable insights into our understanding of the importance of land claims boards and the role they play in the evolution of treaty federalism in Canada Transforming Public Administration in Canada Jill Anne Chouinard, Susanne Thiessen, 2025-06-20 This book explores the intersection of social equity related issues with concerns within the field of public administration in Canada It challenges scholars from schools of public administration to use a social equity lens to reimagine and rethink the ways in which public administration is currently practiced
