Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past NCLEX-RN® EXCEL, Second Edition Ruth A.

Wittmann-Price, Frances H. Cornelius, 2016-11-15 Promotes mastery of the more challenging 2016 exam This ultimate NCLEX RN review book that helps you think like a nurse has been fully updated to incorporate the 2016 test plan Including more complex case studies to reflect the difficulty of the exam this comprehensive review encourages active learning to master the content Each evolving case study is broken down into realistic clinical problems that students can solve only by using the critical thinking skills necessary for the NCLEX RN exam Interspersed with over 700 interactive questions and rationales audio based questions and electronic learning resources the case studies mimic real life nursing situations and provide models to help students problem solve when taking the actual test The review is presented in an enjoyable format without the drudgery of question after unrelated question or medical terminology flashcards Multiple choice questions select all that apply hot spots matching true and false prioritizing gaming and calculations replicate the actual NCLEX RN exam and keep students engaged throughout the review process Each nursing specialty features a chapter on its specific pharmacology principles culminating in a stand alone chapter solely dedicated to reviewing pharmacological principles Beyond its utility as an exam review this resource is also a unique case study book designed to assist instructors in delivering content in an innovative format New to the Second Edition Fully updated to mirror the new 2016 test plan Reflects new changes in nursing including prioritization delegation room assignment The Joint Commission competencies work arounds Situation Background Assessment and Recommendation SBAR reporting and value based care More in depth case studies to reflect greater exam complexity New chapters on gerontology nursing men s health and veterans health New question types including audio based New e learning component New responses to questions are defined by test plan categories and difficulty level Adds many new interactive questions and answers Key Features Uses unfolding case study approach integrating all patient care content areas with practice and professional roles Mirrors NCLEX test blueprint Offers an enjoyable study option distinct from traditional Q A Provides over 700 questions and answers using varied NCLEX question styles Includes references at the end of chapters for self remediation NCLEX RN is a registered trademark of the National Council of State Boards of Nursing Inc Test names are the property of the respective trademark holders none of whom endorse or are affiliated with Springer Publishing Company

Indigenous Pathways into Social Research Donna M Mertens, Fiona Cram, Bagele Chilisa, 2016-06-03 A new generation of indigenous researchers is taking its place in the world of social research in increasing numbers These scholars provide new insights into communities under the research gaze and offer new ways of knowing to traditional scholarly models They also move the research community toward more sensitive and collaborative practices But it comes at a cost Many in this generation have met with resistance or indifference in their journeys through the academic system and in the halls of power They also often face ethical quandaries or even strong opposition from their own communities The life stories in this book present the journeys of over 30 indigenous researchers from six continents and many different disciplines They show in their own words the challenges paradoxes and oppression they have faced their strategies for overcoming them and how their work has produced more meaningful research and a more just society
