Ancient Man in Britain Donald Alexander Mackenzie, 2020-08-06 Reproduction of the original Ancient Man in Britain by Donald Alexander Mackenzie Great Men of Great Britain ... [With Illustrations.] Great Britain. [Appendix. - Miscellaneous.], 1864 The Illustrated History of the British Empire in India and the East, from the Earliest Times to the Suppression of the Sepoy Mutiny in 1859 Edward Henry Nolan, 1878 , The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature , 1860 Systematic Catalogue of the Public Library of the City of Milwaukee Milwaukee Public Library, 1885 The English Counties Delineated: Or, a Topographical Description of England, Illustrated by a Map of London and a Complete Set of County Maps Thomas MOULE, 1837 The Museum , 1897 Catalogue of the Colonial Museum Library Colonial Museum (N.Z.). Report Upon the Condition and Progress of the U.S. National Museum During the Year Ending June 30 ... United States National Museum, 1890 Auction Catalogue American Art Association, 1920 The Early Norman Castles of the British Isles (Illustrations) Ella S. Armitage, 2015-04-03 Example in this ebook The study of earthworks has been one of the most neglected subjects in English arch ology until quite recent years It may even be said that during the first half of the 19th century less attention was paid to earthworks than by our older topographical writers Leland in the reign of Henry VIII never failed to notice the Dikes and Hilles which were Campes of Men of Warre nor the Hilles of Yerth cast up like the Dungeon of sum olde Castelle which he saw in his pilgrimages through England And many of our 17th and 18th century topographers have left us invaluable notices of earthworks which were extant in their time But if we turn over the arch ological journals of some fifty years ago we shall be struck by the paucity of papers on earthworks and especially by the complete ignoring in most cases of those connected with castles The misfortune attending this neglect was that it left the ground open to individual fancy and each observer formed his own theory of the earthworks which he happened to have seen and as often as not stated that theory as a fact We need not be surprised to find Camden doing this as he wrote before the dawn of scientific observation but that such methods should have been carried on until late in the 19th century is little to the credit of English arch ology Mr Clark s work on Medi val Military Architecture published in 1884 which has the merit of being one of the first to pay due attention to castle earthworks counterbalances that merit by enunciating as a fact a mere guess of his own which as we shall afterwards show was absolutely devoid of solid foundation The scientific study of English earthworks may be said to have been begun by General Pitt Rivers in the last quarter of the 19th century but we must not forget that he described himself as a pupil of Canon Greenwell whose careful investigations of British barrows form such an important chapter of prehistoric arch ology General Pitt Rivers applied the lessons he had thus learned to the excavation of camps and dykes and his labours opened a new era in that branch of research By accumulating an immense body of observations and by recording those observations with a minuteness intended to forestall future questions he built up a storehouse of facts which will furnish materials to all future workers in prehistoric antiquities He was too cautious ever to dogmatise and if he arrived at conclusions he was careful to state them merely as suggestions But his work destroyed many favourite antiquarian delusions even some which had been cherished by very learned writers such as Dr Guest s theory of the Belgic ditches of Wiltshire A further important step in the study of earthworks was taken by the late Mr I Chalkley Gould when he founded the Committee for Ancient Earthworks and drew up the classification of earthworks which is now being generally adopted by arch ological writers This classification may be abridged into a promontory or cliff forts b hill forts c rectangular forts d moated hillocks e moated hillocks with courts attached f banks and ditches surrounding homesteads g manorial works h fortified villages To be continue in this ebook Early Man in Europe Charles Rau,1876 Catalogue of the Books Belonging to the Young Men's Association of the City of Chicago Young Men's Association of the City of Chicago. Library,1865 Ancient Britain Mr James Dyer,James Dyer,2002-11-01 This book is for anyone starting out to understand the prehistoric life of Britain from the first human occupation 450 000 years ago until the Roman conquest in AD 43 James Dyer here succeeds in bringing to life a thriving picture of the people and customs of the Stone Bronze and Iron Ages based on the sometimes sparse clues presented by prehistoric archaeological sites across Britain For many readers Ancient Britain will provide the first chance to get to grips with the present state of our knowledge of prehistoric agriculture settlement trade and ritual The rise of power with the development of a class system at the hands of the first metal users is charted through to the growth of wealth and the emergence of a warlike and advanced Iron Age society a society that was nonetheless unable to withstand the might of Rome With over 130 illustrations and photographs including a number of specially drawn reconstructions this highly visual book is an ideal primer for all students of prehistory and all those who are simply interested in the subject Annual Report of the Public Library Committee ,1886
