Angel On High:

Early Christian and Jewish Monotheism Loren T. Stuckenbruck, Wendy E. Sproston North, 2004-05-27 Early Christology must focus not simply on historical but also on theological ideas found in contemporary Jewish thought and practice In this book a range of distinguished contributors considers the context and formation of early Jewish and Christian devotion to God alone the emergence of monotheism The idea of monotheism is critically examined from various perspectives including the history of ideas Graeco Roman religions early Jewish mediator figures scripture exegesis and the history of its use as a theological category The studies explore different ways of conceiving of early Christian monotheism today asking whether monotheism is a conceptually useful category whether it may be applied cautiously and with qualifications or whether it is to be questioned in favor of different approaches to understanding the origins of Jewish and Christian beliefs and worship This is volume 1 in the Early Christianity in Context series and volume 263 in the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement Series
