I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike. I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio-based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread. I still do. Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities.

Linda Darling Hammond, Charles E. Ducommun, Professor of Education, Stanford University: Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores. Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children, adults, and a democratic society, past and present. Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston's Mission Hill School, its goals, curriculum, classroom lessons, and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school.

Larry Cuban, Professor Emeritus of Education, Stanford University: Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction; it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts. This book gives a behind-the-scenes look at Mission Hill, a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual bridges within classrooms and across the school.

Ron Berger, chief academic officer, Expeditionary Learning: It's Not Your Fault. Jillian Campana, Dina Amin, The Cairo Writers Lab, 2023-03-07. A collection of original short plays that focus on sexual harassment and assault in Egypt by debut Egyptian playwrights. These five original short plays written by Egyptian students from the American University in Cairo in collaboration with Jillian Campana and Dina Amin mark the first published plays in Egypt that deal directly with sexual harassment. Sexual crimes are not limited to the workplace or the street; they happen everywhere, from the bedroom to the café, in shops, on modes of transportation, and in businesses, homes, outdoor areas, and educational and religious institutions. They can be perpetrated by a stranger, acquaintance, friend, family member, or loved one, and they can encompass many different types of sexual violence, including verbal, non-verbal, physical, or visual violence. This collection breaks social taboos by offering dramatic texts that reflect the reality of survivors of sexual harassment from multiple perspectives: families and couples, bystanders, victims, and perpetrators, men and women. Many of the women portrayed in these plays are independent, educated, and well-to-do, but they are all subjected to varying degrees of sexual harassment and violence. Accompanied with narrative commentary that places the events in context, these plays and the issues they explore seek to challenge dominant perceptions about sexual harassment in the region and to shine light on the power imbalances and disparities that give rise to it. They will be of interest to artists, social science researchers, educators, and anyone interested in the issue of sexual harassment and collaborative theater processes.

Playwrights: Yehia Abdelghhan, Marwan Abdelmoneim, Nour El-Captan, Passant Faheem, Nour Ibrahim, Noran Morsi, and Omar Omar. The research on which this book is based was awarded the Times Higher Education 2023 MENA Award for Research Project of the Year, Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. Performances of these
