creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O Keef Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age

Karen Blixen's Existentialism Lars Kaaber, 2023-10-11 This book investigates the writings of Karen Blixen Isak Dinesen from an existentialist angle Although it has not been subject to much study Blixen's writing elegantly and subtly integrates the ideas of Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Sartre in a way that makes the philosophers more accessible to a wider audience However Blixen also offers her own ideas of the fundamental problem in existentialism how to arrive at an authentic identity through free individual choices or as Nietzsche put it how to become who you are On the whole Blixen's authorship can be seen as an existential study of the 20th century and the ways by which Western culture came to be what it is now In agreement with Nietzsche's statement that all philosophy is an involuntary autobiography this book also contains accounts of the lives of the three philosophers chiefly involved in this study

The Aristocratic Universe of Karen Blixen Frantz Leander Hansen, 2003 Karen Blixen's works are explored in the light of a passionate insistence on living out this double nature of the divine and the demonic The aristocratic is examined as her depiction of a conduct of life that is faithful to destiny The aristocratic viewpoint is in tune with eternity and places no obstructive morality between self and life Vitality has its source in direct access to the ocean of inexhaustible opportunities with which life presents us The world in her novel Out of Africa for example plays a key role as the consummate illustration of an aristocratic culture The aesthetic guidelines for literary form as well as art as advocated by Karen Blixen are discussed and her view of art is similarly defined and explained as aristocratic Her private correspondence is drawn upon to shed new light on her life and work The Aristocratic Universe of Karen Blixen explores the confrontation between the different cultures and environments which are seen to limit and censure natural behavior while at the same time imposing upon humankind unnecessary notions of sin and guilt Analysis of her stories especially Babette's Feast and of her world view show how Karen Blixen maps out hostility to destiny this being a violation of Creation which is viewed as both divine and demonic Photographs and color pictures of Blixen's art work are also included
